

contents

Preface	ix
List of Contributors	xi
Part I: Introduction	1
1 Introducing critical theories for social work in a neo-liberal context Linda Briskman, Bob Pease and June Allan	3
Part II: Developing conceptual frameworks for critical social work	15
2 Tracing the origins of critical social work practice Philip Mendes	17
3 Theorising new developments in critical social work June Allan	30
4 From evidence-based practice to critical knowledge in post-positivist social work Bob Pease	45
5 Promoting a human rights perspective on critical social work Sharlene Nipperess and Linda Briskman	58
6 Doing critical social work June Allan	70

Part III: Resisting domination and oppression	89
7 Towards anti-racist and culturally affirming practices Marjorie Quinn	91
8 Reversing colonial practices with Indigenous peoples Christine Fejo-King and Linda Briskman	105
9 Reconstructing social work practices with families Susie Costello	117
10 Examining the meaning of childhood in critical social work practice Heather D'Cruz	132
11 Using critical reflection to improve feminist practice Christine Morley	145
12 Challenges and directions for profeminist practice with men Bob Pease	160
13 Empowering and rights-based approaches to working with older people Barbara Black	175
14 Disabling discourses and enabling practices in disability politics Kelley Johnson	188
15 Opening spaces for alternative understandings in mental health practice Selma Macfarlane	201
16 Weaving together the personal and the political in loss and grief June Allan	214
17 Addressing violence and abuse in a gendered world Heather Fraser and Christine Craik	228

Part IV: Locating critical social work in shifting worlds	241
18 Critical practice in a changing context	243
Catherine McDonald
19 Enacting critical social work in publicly funded contexts	255
Nick Halfpenny
20 Framing critical social work practices with rural and remote communities	268
Uschi Bay
21 For a solidarity-based practice in the globalising context	281
Jacques Boulet
 Notes	 295
References	298
Index	342