

Contents

Introduction	9
--------------	---

Part 1: CREATING OPENINGS FOR FAITH

1. The Theological Foundations of Effective Apologetics	15
A. Apologetics Is Grounded in the Doctrines of Creation and Redemption	16
B. Apologetics Is Grounded in God's Ability to Communicate Himself Through Human Language	19
C. Apologetics Is Theologically Informed	23
D. Apologetics Addresses Itself to Specific Audiences	26
2. Points of Contact	30
A. A Sense of Unsatisfied Longing	30
B. Human Rationality	34
C. The Ordering of the World	38
D. Human Morality	39
E. Existential Anxiety and Alienation	42
F. Awareness of Finitude and Mortality	44
G. The Point of Contact and Evangelistic Preaching	46
3. From Assent to Commitment	48
A. The Nature of Faith	48
B. Apologetics Does Not Create Faith	52
C. The Limitations of Apologetics	53
D. The Point of Contact as Point of Departure	56
E. The Decision to Believe	59

Part 2: OVERCOMING BARRIERS TO FAITH

4. What Keeps People from Becoming Christians	63
A. Intellectual Barriers to Faith	64
B. The Historical Associations of Christianity	66
C. The Problem of Relevance	73
D. Misunderstandings of the Nature of Christianity	75

E. The Hunger for Absolute Certainty	77
F. Prior Commitment to Another Belief System	81
G. The Problem of Personal Integrity	88
H. A Sense of Guilt or Inadequacy	92
5. Intellectual Barriers to Faith	94
A. God as Wish Fulfillment?	94
B. Suffering	100
C. Religious Pluralism	108
D. The Resurrection	119
E. The Divinity of Christ	123
F. Sin and Salvation	133
6. A Clash of Worldviews	144
A. Enlightenment Rationalism	147
B. Marxism	156
C. Scientific Materialism	160
D. Feminism	166
E. Postmodernism	175
F. The New Age	181

Part 3: APOLOGETICS IN ACTION

7. From Textbook to Real Life	189
A. Apologetics as Dialogue	189
B. Apologetics and Preaching	191
C. The Appeal to the Imagination	194
D. Apologetics and Literary Forms	198
E. The Appeal to Culture	203
F. We Have Time for a Few Questions . . .	205
G. Concluding Remarks	211
Appendix A. The Point of Contact in Classical Evangelical Thought: John Calvin	212
Appendix B. A Critique of Presuppositionalism: Cornelius van Til	217
Notes	222
For Further Reading	234
Index	237