

Contents

Introduction	6
1. Early Years in Prague at the Turn of the 19th Century	10
Pavla Machalíková
2. University Studies and Thoughts on Art	22
Radim Vondráček
3. The Canon and Its Variations: František Tkadlík and the Prague Academy	30
Pavla Machalíková
4. Observation and Stylisation	40
Markéta Dlábková
5. Tkadlík's Arrival in Vienna: Studies, Patrons, and Ideological Incentives	56
Radim Vondráček
6. A Christian Hero: Heroic, or Sorrowful?	66
Pavla Machalíková
7. Religious Feelings: The Sentimental Genre and Biedermeier Motifs	78
Radim Vondráček
8. Transformations in Altar Painting in the 1820s: Religious Image between Gallery and Altar	94
Pavla Machalíková
9. Patriotic Themes and 'the National School of Painting'	106
Pavla Machalíková
10. Landscape and Its Meanings	118
Markéta Dlábková, Pavla Machalíková
11. Italy: Towards Multifigure Allegory and Symbolic Image	134
Pavla Machalíková
12. Towards Serious Painting at the Beginning of the 1830s: Between Vienna and Prague	148
Pavla Machalíková
13. Return to Prague – Director of the Prague Academy of Fine Arts	162
Radim Vondráček
14. Tkadlík's Pupils	178
Šárka Leubnerová
Conclusion	188
Attachments
Catalogue of František Tkadlík's Paintings and Drawings	190
Šárka Leubnerová, Markéta Dlábková
František Tkadlík's Works Exhibited at the Annual Art Exhibitions in Prague and in Vienna During His Lifetime	302
Šárka Leubnerová, Radim Vondráček
František Tkadlík's Painting Techniques	308
Adam Pokorný
František Tkadlík's Biography	322
Šárka Leubnerová
List of Sources	344
Šárka Leubnerová, Radim Vondráček
Bibliography	350
Šárka Leubnerová
List of Comparative Figures	374
Register	380	