

Contents

List of Figures VII

Introduction: On How the Idea of This Book Came About XI

- 1 Sovereign Power in the Medieval World: Roots, Principles, Meanings 1
  - The Sovereign in Political Philosophy at the Beginning of the Christian Middle Ages 1
  - Iustitia, Pietas, Ordo, and Clementia*—Unchanging Principles of a Changing World 13
  - Rex et Regnum*—The Ruler in the World of Transpersonal Social Institutions 27
  - Tracing the Cultural Archetype 36
- 2 Sources and Methodological Starting Points 41
  - Medieval Princely Mirrors in the Czech Lands 41
  - Medieval Chronicles in Bohemia—The Possibility of Any Interpretation 45
  - Sovereign Majesty in the Medieval Sources 59
- 3 The Origin and the Legitimacy of the Power of the Rulers of Bohemia during the Pre-Hussite Period 66
  - Everything Comes from God 66
  - Blood and Election—Dynasty and Nation 91
- 4 The “Saint-Wenceslas Body” of the Bohemian Dukes and Kings: The Eternal Duke in the Transformations of the Middle Ages in Bohemia 109
- 5 Sovereign Models of Ancient and Biblical Tradition in Czech Sources of the High Middle Ages 135
- 6 Bohemian Rulers and the Seven Virtues 174
  - Saint Wenceslas 186
  - Břetislav I 191
  - Vratislav II 195
  - Přemysl Otakar II 198

- 7 Miles-Rex 204
- 8 Sovereign and Society: Several Faces of Cultural Archetype 234
- Good Times of a Good King 234
  - Pious King 255
  - The King's Justice 269
  - Judging King 271
  - The King's Law, King's Wisdom 273
  - Punishing and Merciful King 279
  - King—Peacemaker 285
  - The Ideal Sovereign as Seen by Himself: Charles IV in the Light of His Literary Activity 288
  - Bad Times of a Bad King 294
- 9 Ideal, Norm, Reality 312
- The King in Ceremony and Ritual 316
  - The Legislating and Judging King 325
  - The King in Charters and Letters (Presentation of the Acquired Habitus) 329
  - Rich and Generous King 339
- Final Notes 363
- Appendix 1 367
- Bibliography 369
- Primary Sources 369
  - Literature 372
- Index of Modern Authors 392
- Index of Names and Subjects 393