Contents

Acknowledgements ix
List of acronyms and abbreviations x

Introduction 1

1 Understanding conflict beyond ethnicity and religion: a review of the main approaches 8

1.1 Ethnicity: concepts, theories and perspectives 9
1.2 Ethnicity, religion and violence: the theoretical debate around primordialism, instrumentalism and constructivism 12
1.3 Beyond ethnicity and religion: Edward Azar's theory of protracted social conflict 19
1.4 Chapter conclusions 23

2 Responding to conflict and building peace in theory and practice: a critical analysis of the liberal peace agenda 29

2.1 The peacebuilding consensus? Origins, gains and losses 30
2.2 Chapter conclusions 37

3 Addressing socio-economic inequalities as a basis for peace: an alternative approach to conflict? 42

3.1 From wishful thinking to reality: economic and social rights in conflict prevention and peacebuilding 47
3.2 Chapter conclusions 52

4 Historical trajectories of the North-South conflict in Sudan (1956–2005) 57

4.1 The complex roots of Sudan's civil conflicts 58
4.2 Chapter conclusions 67

5 From Addis Ababa to the Comprehensive Peace Agreement: a recipe for peace or a way back to conflict? 71

5.1 A long and tortuous peace process 72
5.2 Chapter conclusions 83

6 Rendering invisibilities visible in Sudan: a critical analysis of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement 89

6.1 Chapter conclusions 96

7 A fragile peace and the various 'Souths' within South Sudan: addressing inequalities as a crucial step for peace? 101

7.1 The post-independence challenges to sustainable peace in South Sudan 112
7.2 Chapter conclusions 115

Conclusions 125

Index 134