

Table of Contents

	Page
FOREWORD.....	v
PREFACE	vii
PART I. POOR LEGAL, LEGISLATIVE, AND RULE DRAFTING: THE PROBLEM AND THE CURE
Chapter 1. The Causes of Poor Legal Drafting	2
Endnotes	7
Chapter 2. How to Improve the Quality of Legal Drafting: The Relationship Between Style and Substance	9
Endnotes	13
PART II. SETTING THE STAGE
Chapter 3. Finding Out What the Client Wants and Trans- lating Those Desires Into a Legal Document	16
A. Collaborative Process.....	16
B. Drafter as Architect, Builder, and Journalist	16
C. Know the Law	17
D. Know the Audience	17
E. Determine the Goals of the Client.....	18
F. Prepare a Plan.....	21
G. First Draft and its Revisions	22
H. Show the Draft to Colleagues	23
I. The Final Draft.....	24
Endnotes	25
Chapter 4. Use of Forms	27
A. Forms in General	27
B. A Warning.....	27
C. What is Wrong With Forms	28
D. How to Use Forms.....	29
Endnotes	31
PART III. DRAFTING PRINCIPLES
Chapter 5. Concentrate on the Who and the What.....	34
Chapter 6. The Who—The Actor	36
A. Use the Singular	36
B. Identify the Actor.....	37

	Page
C. Use Articles as Modifiers	38
1. Use "A" or "An" Rather than "Any," "Each," "Every," or "No"	38
2. Use "The" Rather than "Such" or "Said"	39
D. Limit the Use of Pronouns	39
E. List or Characterize Multiple Actors	41
F. Save the Negative for the Action	41
Endnotes	43
Chapter 7. The What—The Action and Object or Complement	44
A. The Action	44
1. Use Active Voice	44
2. Use Base Verbs	46
3. Use the Present Tense and the Indicative Mood	47
4. Use "Shall" Only to Impose a Duty to Act	48
5. Use "May" to Grant Discretion or Authority to Act	49
6. Use "May Not" to Prohibit an Action	50
7. Use the Positive Rather than the Negative	50
8. Use Tabulation for Multiple Actions	51
B. The Object of the Verb or the Complement of the Actor	51
Endnotes	52
Chapter 8. General Rules	53
A. Use Only Necessary Words	53
1. Introduction	53
2. Identify Working Words and Glue Words	54
3. Avoid Compound Constructions or Expressions	54
4. Avoid Redundant Legal Phrases	56
B. Use Common Words	57
C. Avoid Lawyerisms (Legalese)	59
D. Be Consistent	59
E. Use Short Sentences	60
F. Arrange Words Carefully	62
G. Tabulate to Simplify	64
H. Punctuate Properly	68
I. Definitions	70
J. Conditions, Exceptions, and Provisos	71
1. Conditions	71
2. Exceptions	71
3. Provisos	72
K. Penalty	72
L. Creation of an Agency, Entity, or Office	73
M. Cross References	73
N. Numbers, Dates, Time, and Age	74
1. Numbers	74
2. Dates	74
3. Time	74
4. Age	75

	Page
O. Capital Letters	75
P. Hyphens	75
Endnotes	76
Chapter 9. Ambiguity, Vagueness, and Generality	77
A. Importance of Understanding What They are and the Differences Between Them	77
B. Ambiguity	77
C. Confusing Ambiguity With Other Drafting Problems	79
D. Vagueness	79
E. Generality	80
F. Distinguishing Between Vagueness and Generality	80
G. Eliminating Ambiguity, Unintended Vagueness, and Over and Under Generality	80
Endnotes	82
PART IV. DISTINCTIVE ASPECTS OF DRAFTING LEGISLATION
Chapter 10. The Legislative Process	84
A. Importance to Drafter	84
B. Sources of Proposed Legislation	85
C. The Legislative Process	85
D. A Diagram of the Formal Legislative Process	87
Endnotes	91
Chapter 11. Legislative Drafting Process	92
A. Most Difficult Form of Drafting	92
B. Know the Policy Objective of the Client	93
C. Understand the Political Nature of the Task	93
D. More Than a Scribe	95
E. Deliberate Vagueness and Generality	95
F. Time Pressure	96
G. Placement of the Legislation	97
H. Use of Model Legislation, Previously Introduced Bills, and Other Enactments as Drafting "Forms"	98
I. Prepare a Plan, First Draft, and Revisions	99
J. Use a Checklist, and Write and Annotate a Digest of the Proposal	99
K. Show the Draft to Colleagues, Revise Draft, Prepare Final Draft	101
Endnotes	102
Chapter 12. Statutory Construction	104
A. The Definition of Statutory Construction	104
B. Relationship Between Statutory Construction and Legislative Drafting	105
C. The Purpose of Statutory Construction	106
D. Approaches to Statutory Construction	107
E. Internal Aids to Construction	109

	Page
F. When the Courts Use External Sources	110
G. External Sources	111
Endnotes	114
Chapter 13. Organization and Subdivision of a Bill	117
A. Introduction	117
B. Arrangement	117
1. Identifying Prefix and Number	117
a. Federal	117
b. State	117
2. Designation	118
3. Title	118
4. Enacting Clause	118
5. Short Title	118
6. Statement of Purpose, Policy, or Findings	118
7. Section that Adds, Amends, Repeals, Reenacts	119
8. Repeal Section	119
9. Substantive Provision	119
10. Emergency or Urgency Clause	119
11. Severability Section	120
12. Saving Section	120
13. Temporary or Implementing Provisions	120
14. Effective Date	121
C. Organization of Substantive Provisions	121
1. Definitions	121
2. Public	121
3. Administration	122
4. Sanction or Remedy	122
D. System of Subdivision	123
Chapter 14. Formal Requirements and Limitations	125
A. Introduction	125
B. Federal	126
C. State	126
1. Designation	127
2. Title	127
3. Enacting Clause	127
4. Single Subject	127
5. Text of Amended Statute	128
6. Other Restrictions on Content	128
D. Local Legislation	128
Endnotes	129
 PART V. DISTINCTIVE ASPECTS OF DRAFTING ADMINISTRATIVE AND COURT RULES
Chapter 15. Administrative Rules	132
A. Introduction	132
B. Types of Rules and Rulemaking	133
C. Initiating the Rulemaking Process	135

TABLE OF CONTENTS

xv

	Page
D. Procedural Requirements for Informal Rulemaking.....	136
1. Federal APA Requirements	136
2. Exceptions From APA Procedural Requirements	137
E. Delegation and Discretion.....	138
F. Rulemaking by Guidance and Policy	138
G. Executive and Legislative Checks on Rulemaking	139
1. Executive	139
a. Federal	139
b. State	141
2. Legislative.....	142
a. Federal	142
b. State	142
H. Conclusion	143
Endnotes	144
Chapter 16. Court Rules	147
A. Subject Areas.....	147
B. Authority	148
C. Process	150
Endnotes	152
Appendix. Drafting Examples	153
INDEX	161