

Contents

■ INTRODUCTION Situating Historical Sociology Johann Pall Arnason – Nicolas Maslowski	WOLTAŘOVÁ, M. REVIEW Bo Stráth
■ ARTICLES The Nineteenth Century Revised: Towards a New Narrative on Europe's Past Bo Stráth From Domination to Autonomy: Two Eras of Progress in World-sociological Perspective Peter Wagner The Soviet Model of Modernity and Russia's Post-communist Political Transformation Mikhail Maslovskii Jews and Cosmopolitanism: An Arc of European Thought Marci Shore
■ LECTURE From Equality of Opportunity to the Society of Equals Pierre Rosanvallon
■ ESSAY Nazis on the State Payroll in 1930s Ireland David O'Donoghue
■ REVIEWS Stefan Breuer: Der charismatische Staat. Ursprünge und Frühformen staatlicher Herrschaft (Johann Pall Arnason) Jan Čermák: Kalevala Eliase Lönnrota a Josefa Holečka v moderní kritické perspektivě (Bohuslav Šalanda) Dennis Smith in Ljubljana: with contributions by Avgust Lešnik, Marko Kržan and Polona Fijavž (Esther Martos)
5–8 9–26 27–44 45–60 61–81 83–95 97–106 107–112 112–114 114–117 117–121

Jacques Le Goff: Must We Divide History Into Periods?	121–123
(Jakub Mlynář)
 ■ INFORMATION
Historical Sociology as a Study Program at Charles University in Prague (Jiří Šubrt)	125–126
Unique Collection of Interviews with Armenian Genocide Witnesses and Survivors is Available at the Charles University in Prague (Jakub Mlynář)	126–128
Conference “What’s Next for Democratic Capitalism? Social and Systemic Problems of Central European Democracies” (Lucie Cviklová)	128–131
 ■ ANNIVERSARY
Professor Johann Pall Arnason and his Czech Journey (Karel Černý)	133–135