Contents

Series editors' preface Acknowledgements
Introdu	References	1 5
1.1 1.2 1.3 1.4 1.5 1.6 1.7 1.8 1.9	Introduction Defining teacher research Origins of teacher research Conceptualizations of teacher research Evidence-based practice Teacher research in language teaching Benefits of teacher research Barriers to teacher research Critiques of teacher research Conclusion References	6 7 10 11 13 14 15 17 18 22 22
2.1 2.2 2.3 2.4 2.5 2.6 2.7	Study 1: Research engagement in English language teaching Study 2: ELT directors' conceptions of research	30 30 30 31 36 40 41 43 43 45 47

3	3.1 3.2 3.3	Introduction Prior research Conceptions of research Characteristics of good quality research	49 49 49 52 62
		Conclusion References	69 72
4	4.1 4.2	r engagement with research Introduction Teachers' reading and use of research	75 75 75
	4.3 4.4	Enhancing teachers' engagement with research Insights into language teachers' engagement with research	81 86
	4.5	Conclusion References	98 100
5	5.1 5.2 5.3 5.4 5.5 5.6	Introduction Prevalence of doing research Reasons for doing research The research teachers do Impact of doing research Reasons for not doing research Conclusion References	104 104 106 107 109 114 115 123
6		and teaching quality	126 126 127 134 146 149
7	7.1 7.2 7.3	cultures	151 151 154 161 180

		Contents	ix
8	Facilitating teacher research projects		184
	8.1	Introduction	184
	8.2	Promoting teacher research	184
	8.3	Researching ELT in Oman	192
	8.4	Researching 'Sense of Progress'	198
	8.5		205
	8.6	Conclusion	207
		References	207
9	Promo	ting language teacher research engagement	210
	9.1	Introduction	210
	9.2	Rationale and sources of data	210
	9.3	Key findings	211
	9.4	Promoting teacher research engagement	219
	9.5	Investigating language teacher research engagement	225
	9.6		230
		References	231
Appendices			233
	Index		248