

Contents

Introduction: Czech exceptionalism – Andrew Roberts	7
1. The birth of modern Czech politics: 1848–1918 – Vít Hloušek	15
2. Politics in interwar Czechoslovakia – Jan Holzer	33
3. Czech lands under dictatorships and totalitarian regimes 1938–1989 – Jan Holzer	55
4. The Velvet Revolution: the causes and process of the decline of communist power – Stanislav Balík	85
5. The Velvet Divorce: the end of Czechoslovakia – Lubomír Kopeček	99
6. Czech political institutions and the problems of parliamentary democracy – Lubomír Kopeček	115
7. Electoral systems and an obsession with elections – Stanislav Balík	147
8. Reshuffling the party system: from non-politics to anti-politics – Pavel Pšeja	161
9. Market reforms, society and the main features of Czech capitalism – Lubomír Kopeček, Stanislav Balík	183
10. Europeanising and Westernising – Vít Hloušek	213
11. Five ways of looking at Czech politics – Andrew Roberts	231
References	249
List of abbreviations	273
Tables and figures	277