

SUMMARY CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xxi
Table of Statutes	cxxi
List of Abbreviations	cxxvii

I THE BASIS FOR AND SCOPE OF JUDICIAL REVIEW

1. The Legal and Theoretical Bases for Judicial Review	3
2. Scope of Judicial Review	9

II THE IMPACT OF ECHR AND EU LAW ON JUDICIAL REVIEW

3. The Human Rights Act 1998 and Judicial Review	43
4. European Union Law and Judicial Review	81

III PROCEDURAL GROUNDS OF CHALLENGE

5. Procedural Fairness: General Principles	109
6. Procedural Fairness: Specific Requirements	140
7. Consultation	184
8. Bias, Predetermination, and Independence	202
9. Delay on the Part of Public Bodies	236
10. Reasons	248

IV SUBSTANTIVE GROUNDS OF CHALLENGE

11. Identifying Powers and Duties and Ascertaining Their Scope	277
12. Acting Outside the Scope of Powers and Duties	303
13. Failing to Comply with Duties or to Exercise Powers	311
14. Relevant, Irrelevant, and Permissible Considerations	331
15. The Public Sector Equality Duty	357
16. Unauthorized and Improper Purposes	376
17. Irrationality and Unreasonableness	384
18. Proportionality	402
19. Legitimate Expectation	421
20. Errors of Fact	451

V JUDICIAL REVIEW IN PARTICULAR CONTEXTS

21. Policies, Guidance, and Non-Statutory Schemes	469
22. Challenges to Legislation	492

VI PROCEDURE

23. Claims for Which the Judicial Review Procedure Must or May Be Used	507
24. The Parties	529
25. The Initial Stages	549
26. The Permission Stage	593
27. The Substantive Stage	640
28. Costs	683

VII INTERIM AND FINAL REMEDIES

29. Interim Remedies	719
30. Final Remedies	742
31. Monetary Awards	774
32. Discretionary Refusal of Final Remedies	795

Appendices	813
------------	-----

Index	859
--------------	-----