

WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART

DIE ZAUBERFLÖTE

"Among period performances William Christie's stands out," wrote Gramophone of this recording of Die Zauberflöte, an interpretation that falls "sweetly and lovingly on the ear". Hans Peter Blochwitz is "probably the finest Tamino around", Rosa Mannion a Pamina of "much charm [who] blossoms into maturity and indeed passion" and Natalie Dessay a "magnificent Queen of the Night ... with ample weight and tonal glitter". Anton Scharinger makes a stylish, witty Papageno and Reinhard Hagen a Sarastro of both warmth and authority.
