

Contents

Preface to the third edition	x
Publisher's acknowledgements	xi
Note on referencing system	xii
Chronology	xiii
Who's who	xxii
Glossary	xxx
Maps	xxxiv

PART ONE ANALYSIS 1

INTRODUCTION	3
1 THE GROWTH OF CALVINISM	7
John Calvin (1509–64)	7
The creation of a militant church	9
The Conspiracy of Amboise (1560)	12
The impact of Calvinism	12
2 THE KINGDOM IN CRISIS	14
Calvinism and the nobility	14
The growth of faction	18
The crisis of 1559–60	21
3 CATHERINE DE' MEDICI AND THE COLLOQUY OF POISSY	29
The regency of Catherine de' Medici (1560–64)	29
The Colloquy of Poissy (1561)	30
The Edict of January (1562)	33

4	THE FIRST THREE RELIGIOUS WARS	34
	The first war (1562–63)	35
	The second war (1567–68)	39
	The third war (1568–70)	40
5	THE MASSACRE OF ST BARTHOLOMEW	43
	Coligny and the Dutch revolt	43
	The Valois–Navarre marriage	46
	An unsatisfactory peace	46
	The massacre in Paris	49
	The provincial massacres	51
6	HUGUENOT SURVIVAL AND RESISTANCE	53
	The United Provinces of the Midi	54
	The Huguenot doctrine of resistance	56
7	HENRY III	62
	Henry III: A controversial monarch	63
	The Catholic League	65
	The Duke of Anjou	66
	The disputed succession	67
	The 'Day of the Barricades'	70
8	'PARIS IS WORTH A MASS': THE TRIUMPH OF HENRY IV	74
	The political thought of the League	75
	The accession of Henry IV	78
	The end of the League	80
	The Edict of Nantes	81
9	CONCLUSION	85
	The political effects of the wars	86
	The social and economic effects of the wars	91
	Recovery?	96

PART TWO DOCUMENTS 99

1.	The Tumult of Amboise, 1560	100
2.	Michel de l'Hôpital: the voice of moderation, 13 December 1560	101
3.	The Colloquy of Poissy, 9 September–18 October 1561	103

4.	Monluc in Guyenne, 1562	104
5.	The situation in 1562: A Venetian view of France	105
6.	Promises to avenge the murder of François, duke of Guise, 1563	107
7.	The St Bartholomew's Day Massacre, 1572	108
8.	The Huguenot state in the south, 1572	109
9.	Francogallia by François Hotman, 1573	110
10.	The Right of Magistrates by Théodore de Bèze, 1574	111
11.	The Peace of Monsieur, 6 May 1576	113
12.	The Royal Mignons, July 1576	115
13.	The Defence of Liberty against Tyrants by Philippe Du Plessis-Mornay, 1579	116
14.	The Order of the Holy Ghost, January 1579	117
15.	The 'Day of the Barricades', 12 May 1588	118
16.	The murder of Henri, Duke of Guise, at Blois, 23 December 1588	120
17.	The death of Catherine de' Medici, 5 January 1589	123
18.	The assassination of Henry III, 1 August 1589	124
19.	An apologia for the Sixteen, 1593	125
20.	The Edict of Nantes, 30 April 1598	127
21.	Henry IV's speech to the Parlement of Paris, 7 February 1599	131
	GENEALOGIES	132
1.	The later Valois	132
2.	The house of Guise-Lorraine	133
3.	The house of Montmorency	134
4.	The house of Bourbon-Vendôme	135
	FURTHER READING	136
	REFERENCES	143
	INDEX	155