

Contents

Introduction	5
1. Cultural and religious transition in Slovakia after 1989	7
1.1. Post - 1989 Film and Television Culture	9
1.2. Democratization of the society	11
1.3. Religion and Churches after 1989	16
1.4. Values after 1989	25
1.5. Culture after 1989	34
1.6. Conclusion	39
2. Legal aspects of the transition of the Slovak republic after 1989	44
2.1. Constitutional changes in Czechoslovakia and in the independent Slovak Republic after 1989 and 1993	45
2.2. Changes in civil and commercial laws in Czechoslovakia and the independent Slovak Republic after 1989 and 1993	53
2.3. Changes in Criminal Law in Czechoslovakia and in the Independent Slovak Republic after 1989 and 1993	65
2.4. The impact of European law on the national order of the Slovak Republic after 2004	73
2.5. Conclusion	94
3. Economic transformation in Slovakia	97

3.1.	Definition of economic transformation and its concepts.....	98
3.2.	Starting conditions of economic transformation.....	101
3.3.	Disputes over the speech of economic transformation and its conception ..	106
3.4.	Summary of the final economic transformation scenario	117
3.5.	Business environment after 1989 until 1998.....	121
3.6.	Business environment after 1998.....	129
3.7.	Conclusion.....	132
4.	Democratic transition-case of Czechoslovakia	136
4.1.	Theoretical Background To Issue Of Transitions.....	137
4.2.	On Typology And Stages Of Transitions	143
4.3.	Czechoslovakia – Path To Democracy	147
4.4.	Conclusion.....	159
5.	Formation of civil society.....	162
	Bibliography and sources.....	185