

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter I

THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEM AS A SUBJECT OF RESEARCH	9
1. The Beginnings of the International Monetary System	9
2. Currency Types	12
3. A Method for Researching the International Monetary System	26
4. The Main Stages and Evolutionary Forms of the International Monetary System	28
Notes	30

Chapter II

THE STRUCTURE OF THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEM	32
1. National Currencies and National Monetary Systems as a Basic Part of the International Monetary System	32
a. The Concept of "National Currency"	32
b. Diversity of the International Monetary System's Monetary Composition	35
c. Leading Currencies and Dependent Currencies	36
2. Regional Monetary Systems as a Part of the International Monetary System	38
3. World Currencies and Key World Currencies as a Part of the International Monetary System	41
4. The World Monetary Standard	49
Notes	59

Chapter III

THE GOALS OF GLOBAL MONETARY POLICY	62
Notes	76

Chapter IV

THE CONVERTIBILITY REQUIREMENT	78
1. Direct and Indirect Convertibility of Currency to Gold	78
2. Variations on the Concept of the Mutually Free Convertibility of Currencies	83
3. The Significance of the Mutually Free Convertibility of Currencies	90

4. Mutually Free Convertibility vs Exchange Rate Stability:
Two Conflicting Requirements	98
a. The “Model” Relationship between the Balance of Payments and the Exchange Rate	98
b. The Relationship between the Balance of Payments and the Exchange Rate during Exchange Restriction	99
c. The Impact of Free Convertibility on the Exchange Rate of Freely Convertible Paper Currency for Current Payments	103
d. The Effect of the International Flow of Capital on Exchange Rates up to the Fall of the Original Bretton Woods System	112
e. The Inevitable Float of Exchange Rates during the Present Period of Expansion of International Capital Flow	119
Notes	130

Chapter V

THE STABILITY REQUIREMENT	132
1. The Concept of “Monetary Stability”	132
a. The Concept of a “Stable International Monetary System”	133
b. The Concept of “National Currency Stability”	136
2. Prospects for Stabilising the Purchasing Power of Currencies	139
3. Efforts towards “Anchoring” the International Monetary System to a “Basket of Currencies” (the SDR)	155
a. Ensuring Stability in International Monetary Systems Linked to Gold	155
b. SDRs as “Paper Gold”	156
c. The Value of the SDR Unit	160
Notes	167

Chapter VI

THE LIQUIDITY REQUIREMENT	169
1. The Issue of Liquidity in International Monetary Systems Linked to Gold	169
a. The Period of the Universal Gold Standard	169
b. The Period of the Gold Dollar Exchange Standard	174
i.) The Period of Prosperity for the Gold Dollar Exchange Standard	174
ii.) The Period of Adverse Conditions for the Gold Dollar Exchange Standard and the Fall of Dollar	176
2. The Issue of Liquidity in the Present International Monetary System with no Link to Gold	182
Notes	192

Chapter VII

THE SYMMETRY REQUIREMENT	193
------------------------------------	-----

Chapter VIII

THE MAGIC TRIANGLE OF GLOBAL MONETARY POLICY	197
Notes	201

Chapter IX

THE EUROPEAN MONETARY SYSTEM AND TRANSITION TO THE EUROPEAN MONETARY UNION	202
1. Pre-history of the European Monetary System	202

2. The European Monetary System	207
a. The Mechanism of the European Monetary System	208
b. Development of the European Monetary System	216
3. European Monetary Union	221
Notes	227

References	228
-----------------------------	-----

Index	239
------------------------	-----

TABLES, CHARTS AND SURVEYS

Chapter I:

Classification of currencies	14
An historical survey of the International Monetary System	28

Chapter II 3:

Table 1 – The currency composition of official holdings of foreign exchange (1977, 1987 and 1997)	44
Table 2 – Change in the structure of official world reserves (1899–1971)	45

Chapter IV 4 (e):

Table 1 – Flow of portfolio investment and direct investment (1973–1996)	121
Table 2 – Main industrial countries: total and net flow of foreign direct investment and portfolio investment (1970–1997)	122
Table 3 – Selected main industrial countries: cross-border securities transactions – bonds and equities (1975–1997, in % GDP)	122
Table 4 – Trading on world exchange markets (1986–1995)	124

Chapter V 2:

Table 1 – Wholesale price index 1750–1950 (USA, United Kingdom, France, Germany, Netherlands, Switzerland, Sweden)	144
Table 2 – Wholesale price index, 1950–1997 (industrial countries, developing countries, world)	148
Chart 1 – USA, wholesale price index, 1795–1950	149
Chart 2 – United Kingdom, wholesale price index, 1750–1950	149
Chart 3 – France, wholesale price index, 1800–1945	150
Chart 4 – Germany, wholesale price index, 1790–1950	150
Chart 5 – Netherlands, wholesale price index, 1900–1950	151
Chart 6 – Switzerland, wholesale price index, 1810–1950	151
Chart 7 – Sweden, wholesale price index, 1860–1950	152
Chart 8 – Industrial countries, wholesale price index, 1950–1995	152
Chart 9 – World, wholesale price index, 1950–1997	153
Table 3 – Annual change in wholesale prices, 1950–1997 (industrial countries total, USA, Japan, Germany)	154

Chapter V 3 (c):

Table 1 – Original “currency basket” forming the SDR	162
Table 2 – “Currency baskets” forming the SDR (1981–1998)	163
Table 3 – The average annual SDR rate for the five major currencies	165

Chapter VI 1:

Charts 1 and 2 – Movement in wholesale prices, 1850–1910 (Sauerbeck-Statist Index)	170
Table 1 – Division of gold reserves (1913, 1950, 1958, 1962)	173

Chapter VI 2:

Table 2 – US monetary gold reserves and foreign exchange reserves (1938–1997)	185
Table 3 – Monetary reserves of 13 industrial countries, excluding USA (1949–1971)	186
Table 4 – World monetary reserves (1949–1997)	186
Table 5 – World imports (1950–1997)	188
Table 6 – Price of gold, London (1968–1998)	190
Chart 3 – Price of gold, 1972–1981 (monthly gold market averages, London)	191
Table 7 – US international investment position (1950–1997)	192

Chapter IX 2:

Table 1 – ECU (European Currency Unit) as of 13 March 1979	210
Table 2 – Changes in the composition of the ECU basket	211
Table 3 – Initial parity grid of the European Monetary System	213
Table 4 – Percentage change in the consumer price indices of ERM-participating countries (1975–1989)	216
Table 5 – Fulfilment of Maastricht convergence criteria	220

Chapter IX 3:

Table 6 – Number of monetary units for 1 ECU in 1979 and 1989, and for 1 euro in 1999	226
--	-----