

CONTENTS

Foreword	xiii
----------	------

PART I
Thinking and Rethinking Gatekeeping	1

1. Revisiting Gatekeeping Theory During a Time of Transition	3
Tim P. Vos
2. How Gatekeeping Still Matters: Understanding Media Effects in an Era of Curated Flows	25
Kjerstin Thorson and Chris Wells

PART II
Individual Level: The New Gatekeepers	45

3. Journalists' Truth Justification in a Transnational News Environment	47
Lea Hellmueller
4. Futures of Journalists: Low-Paid Piecework or Global Brands?	65
Angela Phillips

PART III
News Routines: New and Old	83
5. On a Role: Online Newspapers, Participatory Journalism, and the U.S. Presidential Elections Jane B. Singer	85
6. The Journalist as a Jack of All Trades: Safeguarding the Gates in a Digitized News Ecology Karin Raeymaeckers, Annelore Deprez, Sara De Vuyst, and Rebeca De Dobbelaer	104
PART IV
News Organization—or Lack Thereof	121
7. The Tyranny of Immediacy: Gatekeeping Practices in French and Spanish Online Newsrooms Florence Le Cam and David Domingo	123
8. Ecologies and Fields: Changes Across Time in Organizational Forms and Boundaries Wilson Lowrey	141
PART V
Social Institutions: Gatekeeping the Gatekeepers	161
9. Keeping Watch on the Gates: Media Criticism as Advocatory Pressure Matt Carlson	163
10. Whose Hand on the Gate? Rupert Murdoch's Australian and News Coverage of Climate Change Rodney Tiffen	180
PART VI
Social Systems Near and Far	201
11. Visual Gatekeeping in the Era of Networked Images: A Cross-Cultural Comparison of the Syrian Conflict Mervi Pantti	203

12. How Community Orientation Resists Global News Routines in South Africa and Norway John A. Hatcher	224
FOREWORD
PART VII
Conclusion	251
13. Gatekeeping Theory Redux François Heinderyckx	253
Contributors	269
Index	273