

Contents

Preface	xii
Acknowledgements	xiv
List of abbreviations and glossary	xv

Part I Laying the groundwork

1 The marketing perspective 3

Learning outcomes	3
Introduction	3
What is marketing?	6
A historical overview	8
Some issues in travel and tourism marketing	8
Marketing as a field of study	11
Constraints in marketing	12
Categories of marketing	15
The nature of tourism services	16

2 Marketing planning 23

Learning outcomes	23
What is marketing planning?	23
Planning for what?	24
Setting objectives	26
The business environment	26
SWOT analysis	30
Strategic planning	36
Collaborative marketing	40
Forecasting	42
Setting the marketing budget	47
Organising for effective marketing	48
The marketing mix	52
Controlling the marketing plan	56

3 Marketing research and its applications in tourism 59

Learning outcomes	59
What is marketing research?	59
Why marketing research?	62
What information do we need?	63
Commissioning research	63
The Marketing Information System	64
Ethics in research	72
Qualitative versus quantitative research methods	84
Econometric models	86

4 The tourist market 100

Learning outcomes	100
Introduction	100
Understanding needs and wants	101
Organisational marketing	111
Relationship marketing	113
Applying the theory in marketing tourism	115
Segmentation in travel and tourism marketing	116
Other lessons from Maslow	119
Decision-making for the travel purchase	122
Market segmentation as a guide to marketing planning	124

5 Tourism product policy 129

Learning outcomes	129
What is product policy?	129
Differentiating the product	131
Branding	134
The product mix	144
The product life cycle	146
Revitalising a product	149
Launching a new product	151
The sustainable product	154
Why do products fail?	155
Screening the new product	157

6 Pricing the product 161

Learning outcomes	161
Introduction	161

The economics of price	162
Pricing and yield management	165
Internal influences on pricing	169
Pricing and the product mix	171
The role of price in the tourism marketing mix	173
Other influences on price	174
Developing a price policy	175
Non-commercial pricing policies	180
Strategic and tactical pricing	183
Discounting tactics	185

Part II Reaching the customer

7 Marketing communications and ICT applications 191

Learning outcomes	191
Introduction	191
The communications process	192
Determining the promotions mix	195
Communications and ICT	197
The communications budget	199
Determining the message objectives	200
Designing the message	203
Successful communications	205

8 Distributing travel and tourism 208

Learning outcomes	208
Introduction	208
Channel choice	209
Cost	210
Control and level of service	210
Efficiency	211
Transport distribution	212
Tour operators	216
Distributing accommodation	217
Intensive versus selective distribution	218
Distribution through travel agents	219
Cooperative distribution systems	222
Building links with the retail agent	225
Inventory control	230
Reservations systems	231
Future directions	236

9 The sales function 238

Learning outcomes	238
Introduction	238
The use of social and personal skills	240
The sales sequence	242
The role of the sales representative	246
Managing sales representatives	248
Selling through travel agents	251
Travel agency design	254

10 Tourism advertising 263

Learning outcomes	263
Introduction: ethical issues	263
Advertising objectives	265
Expenditure	266
Strategy in advertising	268
Timing the campaign	278
Advertising agencies	279
Evaluating the impact of advertising	282
Door-to-door distribution	284

11 The travel brochure 286

Learning outcomes	286
The role of the travel brochure	286
Preparing the brochure	287
Accuracy and statutory requirements	292
Segmentation of the market	294
Evolution problems	295
Distributing the brochure	296
The brochure at point of sale	298
The e-brochure	298
Evaluating the brochure	301

12 Sales promotion for travel and tourism 303

Learning outcomes	303
The nature of sales promotion	303
The techniques of sales promotion	305
Planning the sales promotion	309

Evaluating the impact of promotion	312
Exhibitions and trade fairs	314
Making trade presentations	316
Planning and organising consumer presentations	317

13 Direct marketing: theory and practice 321

Learning outcomes	321
What is direct marketing?	321
Evaluating the impact of direct marketing	328
Direct sell holidays	329
Using databases	330
Direct marketing for destinations	332
Some guidelines for good direct mail letters	333

14 Public relations and its uses in the tourism industry 338

Learning outcomes	338
Why PR?	338
PR: its definition, characteristics and role	339
The organisation of PR	342
The PRO	343
Mounting a PR campaign	343
Gaining publicity	344
Press relations	345
The familiarisation visit	354
Handling unfavourable publicity	359
Evaluating campaign results	362
Corporate social responsibility	363

15 Marketing control 367

Learning outcomes	367
Control in the marketing process	367
Performance control	369
Quality control	371
Financial control	372
Efficiency control	373
Strategic control	375

Part III Case studies

1	An integrated marketing campaign to expand Travelocity's member base	381
2	Small business survival in the wake of September 11th: the case of Trips Worldwide	396
3	Marketing a specialist product: the holiday homes rental market in Norway	403
4	Restructuring an airline: the fall and rise of Adria Airways	414
5	Leeds Castle: reappraising marketing strategy to maximise opportunities	421
6	Marketing the concept of a destination: the launch of Destination Wessex	430
7	The use of personalities to support a campaign for recovery: Yorkshire Tourist Board	438
8	Piran: establishing a sustainable 'gem city'	445
9	Repositioning a hospitality product: The Cross at Kingussie, Scotland	455
10	Branding a tourist attraction: Middleton, the National Botanic Garden of Wales	461
11	Marketing little-known destinations: the island of Saaremaa, Estonia	471
12	The small museum and its struggle to survive: the Museum of Bath at Work	478
13	The past, present and future of a popular tourist destination: the Costa del Sol	487

Bibliography	494
---------------------	-----

Index	498
--------------	-----

Website Resources

For Lecturers:

- PowerPoint slides that can be downloaded and used as OHTS