

Contents

---

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Introduction  | I   |
| 1 The Doctrine and its Critics  | 8   |
| Part One Theories of Nationalism                                   |     |
| 2 The Imitation of Kant   | 27  |
| 3 The Religion of Modernisation   | 41  |
| 4 Anticolonialism   | 65  |
| 5 Transitional Man  | 86  |
| 6 Industrialisation and the Crisis of the Intelligentsia                  | 109 |
| Part Two Varieties of Nationalism                                  |     |
| 7 Definitions   | 153 |
| 8 Typologies  | 192 |
| 9 The Varieties of Nationalism  | 211 |
| 10 'Dual Legitimation': The Matrix of Ethnic Nationalism                  | 230 |
| Conclusion  | 255 |
| Appendix A: Nationalism and Sociological Research                         | 257 |
| Appendix B: Some Ideological Relatives ofNationalism                  | 259 |
| Appendix C: Addendum to Gellner's Theory                                  | 265 |
| Appendix D: Nationalism and the Classical Revival inRenaissance Italy | 268 |
| Appendix E: Some Nationalist Movements                                    | 271 |

vi      THEORIES OF NATIONALISM

|                      |     |
|----------------------|-----|
| Bibliographical Note | 273 |
| Bibliography         | 275 |
| Notes                | 289 |
| Index                | 333 |