

CONTENTS

Preface / xi

Part I INTRODUCING TA

1. What TA Is / 3

Key ideas of TA 3

The philosophy of TA 6

Part II PICTURING PERSONALITY: The Ego-State Model

2. The Ego-State Model / 11

Examples of ego-state shifts 12

Definition of ego-states 15

Are ego-state distinctions real? 16

Ego-states and superego, ego, id 17

Ego-states are names, not things 18

The over-simplified model 18

3. Functional Analysis of Ego-States / 21

Adapted Child and Free Child 22

Controlling Parent and Nurturing Parent 25

Adult 26

Egograms 26

4. The Second-Order Structural Model / 30

Second-order structure: Parent 31

Second-order structure: Adult 33

Second-order structure: Child 34

Distinguishing structure from function 36

5. Recognizing Ego-States / 39

Behavioral diagnosis 39

Social diagnosis 43

Historical diagnosis 44

Phenomenological diagnosis 45

Ego-state diagnosis in practice 45

The executive and the real Self 46

6. Structural Pathology / 50

Contamination 50

Exclusion 53

Part III COMMUNICATING: Transactions, Strokes and Time Structuring

7. Transactions / 59

Complementary transactions 60

Crossed transactions 62

Ulterior transactions 65

Transactions and non-verbals 68

Options 69

8. Strokes / 72

Stimulus-hunger 72

Kinds of strokes 73

Stroking and reinforcement of behavior 74

Giving and taking strokes 75

The stroke economy 78

The stroking profile 81

Self-stroking 82

Are there 'good' and 'bad' strokes? 84

9. Time Structuring / 87

Withdrawal 88

Rituals 88

Pastimes 89

Activities 90

Games 91

Intimacy 93

Part IV WRITING OUR OWN LIFE-STORY: Life-Scripts

10. The Nature and Origins of Life-Script / 99

Nature and definition of life-script 99

Origins of the script 101

11. How the Script is Lived Out / 107

Winning, losing and non-winning scripts 107

The script in adult life 110

Why script understanding is important 113

The script and the life course 115

12. Life Positions / 117

Life position in adulthood: the OK Corral 119
Personal change and the OK Corral 122

13. Script Messages and the Script Matrix / 125

Script messages and the infant's perception 125
Kinds of script message 125
The script matrix 128

14. Injunctions and Decisions / 134

Twelve injunctions 134
Episcript 140
How decisions relate to injunctions 141
Antiscript 145

15. Script Process / 148

Six process scripts 148
Combinations of process themes 152
Origins of process script 152
Breaking out of process script patterns 153

16. Drivers and the Miniscript / 155

How to detect driver behavior 155
Primary driver 158
Drivers and process script types 159
Drivers and life position 162
The five allowers 163
Origins of drivers 163
The miniscript 164
The four myths 167

Part V MAKING THE WORLD FIT OUR SCRIPT: Passivity

17. Discounting / 173

Nature and definition of discounting 173
Grandiosity 174
The four passive behaviors 175
Discounting and ego-states 177
Detecting discounts 178

18. The Discount Matrix / 181

Areas of discounting 181
Types of discounting 181
Levels (modes) of discounting 182

The discount-matrix diagram 182
Using the discount matrix 185

19. Frame of Reference and Redefining / 188

The frame of reference 188
Frame of reference and the script 190
Nature and function of redefining 190
Redefining transactions 191

20. Symbiosis / 194

'Healthy' v. 'unhealthy' symbiosis 198
Symbiosis and the script 199
Symbiotic invitations 200
Second-order symbiosis 201

Part VI JUSTIFYING OUR SCRIPT BELIEFS: Rackets and Games

21. Rackets and Stamps / 207

Rackets and script 210
Racket feelings and authentic feelings 212
Racket feelings, authentic feelings and problem-solving 214
Racketeering 215
Stamps 217

22. The Racket System / 220

Script Beliefs and Feelings 220
Rackety Displays 224
Reinforcing Memories 226
Breaking out of the Racket System 228

23. Games and Game Analysis / 231

Examples of games 231
Sweatshirts 234
Different degrees of games 234
Formula G 235
The Drama Triangle 236
Transactional analysis of games 239
The Game Plan 240
Definitions of games 241

24. Why People Play Games / 244

Games, stamps and script payoff 244
Reinforcing script beliefs 245

Games, symbiosis and the frame of reference 245
Games and strokes 248
Berne's 'six advantages' 248
Positive payoffs of games 249

25. How to Deal with Games / 251

Need we name the game? 251
Some familiar games 251
Using Options 254
Disowning the negative payoff 255
Replacing game strokes 257

Part VII CHANGING: TA in Practice

26. Contracts for Change / 260

Steiner's 'four requirements' 260
Why use contracts? 261
Making an effective contract 263

27. Aims of Change in TA / 266

Autonomy 266
Becoming free from the script 267
Problem-solving 268
Views of 'cure' 268

28. TA Therapy / 271

Self-therapy 271
Why therapy? 271
Characteristics of TA therapy 273
Three schools of TA 274

29. TA in Organizations and Education / 278

Differences between EO and clinical applications 278
Organizational applications 279
TA in education 281

30. How TA Has Developed / 283

Eric Berne and the origins of TA 283
The early years 285
The years of expansion 286
International consolidation 287

APPENDICES

A. Books by Eric Berne / 291

B. Other Key Books on TA / 293

C. Winners of the Eric Berne Memorial Scientific Award / 295

D. TA Organizations / 297

E. Training and Accreditation in TA / 299

F. Course Outline of the ‘Official 101’ / 303

NOTES AND REFERENCES / 306

BIBLIOGRAPHY / 320

GLOSSARY / 326

INDEX / 337

ORDERING INFORMATION / 342