

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vi
1. Foreword: Turkish Migrant Participation in Civic and Political Life Ahmet İçduygu	1
2. Introduction: Turkish Identity Formation and Political Mobilization in Western Europe and North America Şebnem Köşer Akçapar & Gökçe Yurdakul	4
3. Turkish Organizations in Europe: How National Contexts Provide Different Avenues for Participation Pontus Odmalm	13
4. Turkish Associations in the United States: Towards Building a Transnational Identity Şebnem Köşer Akçapar	28
5. Immigrant Associations in Canada: Included, Accommodated, or Excluded? Saime Ozcurumez	57
6. Islam, Conflict, and Integration: Turkish Religious Associations in Germany Gökçe Yurdakul & Ahmet Yükleyen	78
7. "The Light of the Alevi Fire Was Lit in Germany and then Spread to Turkey": A Transnational Debate on the Boundaries of Islam Esra Özyürek	93
8. Organizing for Access? The Political Mobilization of Turks in Amsterdam Laure Michon & Floris Vermeulen	114
9. Towards a Success Story? Turkish Immigrant Organizations in Norway Jon Rogstad	135

CONTENTS

10. The Gülen Movement in Ireland: Civil Society Engagements of a Turkish Religio-cultural Movement Jonathan Lacey	153
11. Afterword: Beyond a Methodologically Nationalist Perspective on Civil Society Thomas Faist	174
Index	179