

Contents

131	How do we share our knowledge? Writing up and making public
133	8 Testing the validity of knowledge claims
145	9 Writing and presenting action research reports
150	10 Judging quality and demonstrating impact: The significance of your action research

131	List of figures	vii
133	List of contributors	viii
135	Acknowledgements	xiii

135	Introduction	1
-----	--------------	---

PART I

What do we know? The principles of action research 21

1	What do we know? The principles of action research	23
2	How do we come to know? Linking theory and practice	38
3	Who has influenced our thinking? Key theorists in action research	54
4	What do we need to know? Exercising educational influence	72

PART II

What do we do with our knowledge? The practices of action research 87

5	How do we do action research? Planning and doing a project	89
6	Monitoring practice, gathering data, generating evidence, and ethics	104
7	Practical issues	119

PART III
How do we share our knowledge? Writing up and making public	131
8 Testing the validity of knowledge claims	133
9 Writing and presenting action research reports	145
10 Judging quality and demonstrating impact: The significance of your action research	159
PART IV
How do we use our knowledge? Action research for good order	173
11 Action research for personal, social and institutional transformation	175
12 Action research for good order	188
PART V
Hopes and prospects	201
13 Whither action research?	203
Notes	209
References	210
Index	220

