

Table of contents

Preface	V
I. Preliminary remarks	1
A. Harmonisation and comparative law	1
B. Common law and civil law	3
II. The notion of tort law	13
A. A first glimpse	13
B. »Schadenersatzrecht« and the law of torts	17
III. Replacing the law of damages with different compensation systems?	29
IV. Harmonising European tort law – a critical view	33
A. Introduction	33
1. Why would harmonising E.U. tort law be beneficial?	33
2. Hurdles to overcome	34
3. Present efforts of the European Union	34
4. How to do better	35
B. The European Group on Tort Law and the Study Group	36
1. The European Group	36
2. The Study Group on a European Civil Code	37
C. Method of designing the draft	37
D. Language and terminology	43
E. Taking regard not only of tort law but also of the entire legal system	44
F. Different general tendencies as an obstacle for harmonisation	46
1. Liability of children	46
2. All or nothing?	48
G. Some serious differences on important issues	50
1. General remarks	50
2. Liability for omissions	51

3. Strict liability	52
4. Limitation periods	53
H. Concluding words	55
V. Tort law and neighboring legal instruments serving the protection of interests	57
A. Introduction	57
B. Liability for damage	58
C. The law of damages is always late	60
D. Law of damages' lack of preventive effect	61
1. Killing another person	61
2. Lack of preventive effect if advantages are greater than damage	62
3. Avoiding damage is more expensive than compensating damage	64
E. Punitive damages	65
F. The difficult relationship between the law of damages and liability insurance	69
G. Law of damages and social insurance	71
VI. The aims of tort law	75
A. Introduction	75
B. Compensation as the main task	76
C. Deterrence	78
D. Economic optimisation	80
VII. The basic criteria: damage and causation	87
A. Damage	87
1. General remarks	87
2. Non-pecuniary harm	88
B. Causation	96
1. General remarks	96
2. Several tortfeasors and alternative tortfeasors	98
VIII. Elements of liability	119
A. Introduction	119
B. Fault	120
C. Interplay of liability criteria	123
1. In general	123
2. The interplay of misconduct and dangerousness ..	125

IX.	Restrictions of liability	129
	A. Comparative overview	129
	B. Lawful alternative conduct	130
X.	Compensation	139
	A. Comparative review	139
	B. Reduction clause	139
	Selected Literature	145
	Index	147
	Publication	157