

CONTENTS

---

Preface	page ix
List of place-names	xiii
Map of Czechoslovakia 1918-1938	xiv
1 Could Austria-Hungary have been made viable?	i
2 The end of the old era - 1918-19	16
3 Versailles and St Germain	38
4 The 1920 Czechoslovak Constitution	54
5 The first years	65
6 German participation in the Czechoslovak Government	74
7 Germany and Czechoslovakia - 1918-33	86
8 In the shadow of the Third Reich	103
9 Henlein 'ante portas'	110
10 Henlein 'intra muros'	127
11 Democracy in resistance	147
12 Czechoslovakia's rôle in Nazi foreign policy	175
13 Britain capitulates to Hitler	195
14 The Runciman Mission	228
15 September 1938	243
16 Munich and its consequences	291
Epilogue	310
Bibliography	311
Index	321

INDEX

---

Abbreviations used: CzS for Czechoslovak, Czechoslovakia
SdP for Sudeten German Party

- 'Activist' German parties, 35, 74, 77; votes for, 63, 79; involved in government, 79, 81, 84-5; lose votes to SdP (1935), 123-4; requirements of, accepted by government (1937), 148-50; Henlein tries to hamper settlement with, 150-2; Britain and agreement with, 155; and suggestion of partnership with SdP, 169; end of, 170-2; see also Agrarians, Christian Socials, Social Democrats
- Adler, Victor (1858-1918), Austrian Social Democrat leader, 15; Foreign Minister, 25
- administration in Austria-Hungary, Germans in, 6-7, 150
- administration in CzS: German share in, 49, 59, 66, 149, 150; languages in, 50; reform of areas of (1927), 78
- Agrarian Party, Austria, 13
- Agrarian Party, Czech, 121, 124; pro-Henlein Moravian section of, 120, 121, 127; SdP suggested as possible partner for, 168-9
- Agrarian Party, German, CzS, 13, 35, 67, 85, 107; enter the government (1926), 76; lose support to Nazis, 105; in 1935 election, 123, 124; in election of Beneš as President, 131; join SdP, 170-1, 195
- agrarian reform, 66, 232
- Altenburg, Günther, German diplomat, 140
- Amery, Leopold (1873-1955), British politician, 285n
- anti-semitism: of Popovici, 5n; of Nazis, 104, 226, 251; of Henlein, 110
- Arbitration Treaty, between Germany and CzS (1925), 74, 93-4, 180, 182, 183, 269, 271; memorandum by Gaus on, 193-4; declared useless by Anglo-French (1938), 279-80, 288; broken by Hitler, 291
- army, Austro-Hungarian: Czech units of, go over to Russians, 10
- army, British: on impossibility of saving CzS, (Chiefs of Staff) 201, (War Office) 225
- army, CzS; units of, formed in Italy, 35; Henlein on, 116-17, 255; German officers in, 149; one class of, called up (May 1938), 189, 190, 191, 192; Henlein falsely claims to have served in, 134; mobilized (Sept. 1938), 285; abroad (1939), 302
- army, German: desire to annex German Austria (1918), 24, 25; orders to, on preparation for attack on CzS (1937), 184-6, 191, 192; troop movements against CzS by (May 1938), 187-91; X-order for attack on CzS by (1938), 241-2; revolt of generals of, planned for 1938, 241, 287
- Aš: question of cession of district of, to Germany (1919), 40, 275; homage to Henlein at, 223
- Ashton-Gwatkin, Frank (b. 1889), of Foreign Office: member of Runciman mission, 232, 247, 305; favourably impressed by Henlein, 235-6, 243, 245; suggests Henlein should negotiate with Hitler on behalf of British government, 236, 237; confides Runciman's intentions to Henlein, 240; Henlein reports to, on interview with Hitler, 246; reports from Berlin (1939), 305
- Attolico, Bernardo (1890-1942), Italian Ambassador in Berlin, 292, 293
- Austria-Hungary, could it have been made viable (1918)?, 1-15
- Austrian Republic: proclaimed (21 Oct. 1918), 22; territorial claims of, 30-4; prospect of incorporation of, into Germany, 35-6; incorporation not permitted by Allies, 38, 93, 97, 98; at Versailles, 42, 43; Beneš as obstacle to union of Germany and, 97; customs union with Germany proposed, 98-100, 101; Nazi successes in (election of

Index

Austrian Republic (cont.)

1932), 105; Agreement between Germany and (1936), opens door to acceptance of Nazis in official positions, 196; annexed by Hitler (Mar. 1938), 165, 169-70, 183, 185, 308

autonomy, for minorities in CzS, 52, 57; not possible, (Masaryk) 70, (Koch) 71, 151, (Eisenlohr) 151, 167-8; cultural, 77, 82, 84; Masaryk more accommodating towards idea of, 79-80; Social Democrats defer claim to, because of Nazi danger, 148; Henlein pretends to desire, 154, 155, 159, 164, 214; British support for, 157; Hodža takes stand against, 167-8; Newton on, 204

Balfour, Arthur (1848-1930), Foreign Secretary, 43

Balkan Wars, 8

Bauer, Otto (1881-1938), Austrian Social Democrat, 4-5, 14, 41; Foreign Minister, 33

Bechyně, Rudolf (1881-1948), Czech Social Democrat politician, 62, 81, 144

Beck, Jozef (1894-1944), Polish Foreign Minister, 103

Belgium, German declaration to (1937), 196

Beneš, Edvard (1884-1948), 87-8; doctoral thesis of (1908), 7; abroad during war, 10, 15; Foreign Minister of new Republic (1918-35), 17; at Versailles, ready to cede territory to Germany, 39-40, 177, 264; addresses Council of Ten, 41; gives assurances about minorities, 47-9, 50, 51; against idea of 'National State', 61, 144, 203; supports full ethnical justice, 65, 67, 80, 88; at Locarno Conference, 73, 74, 83; attitude of, to Germany, 88-92, 93-4, 97, 103; at League of Nations meeting, 92; at Warsaw, 93; at Berlin, 94-6; suggested as Chairman of Disarmament Conference, 98; and proposed German-Austrian customs union, 100, 101, 102; elected President (1935-8, 1940-8), 108, 130-1, 145;

and SdP, 121, 137; Koch on, 129; Eisenlohr reports views on minorities expressed by, 151-2, 161-2, 167, 177-8, 179; German Social Democrats pledge loyalty to, 170, 172; meets Eden (1935), 175; meets Hitler's emissaries (1936), 179-82; in May 1938 crisis, 191;

pressure from Britain on, 209, 220, 221, 222, 224, 227; on Henlein's demands, 226; and Runciman mission, 230, 243-5, 246, 275; 'Third Plan' of, 238-40, 245, 249; 'Fourth Plan' of, 247-50, 277; Henderson on, 255; suggests extent of acceptable sacrifices, 266-8; Anglo-French proposals transmitted to, 269; Anglo-French ultimatum to, 271, 279-81; telephone conversation of, with London, tapped by Germans, 276-7; appeals to Chamberlain (before Munich), 291-2; resigns, 306; struggles for restoration of CzS independence, 309; mentioned, 141, 144, 154, 148, 159, 197, 263

Beran, Rudolf (1887-1954), Czech Agrarian politician, 168-9

Berchtesgaden, Chamberlain meets Hitler at (Sept. 1938), 258-63, 271

Berthelot, Philippe (1866-1934), French diplomat, 48

Bismarck, Otto von, quoted, 129

Blomberg, Werner von (1878-1946), German War Minister, 184-5

Blum, Léon (1872-1950), French Socialist Premier (1936-7 and Mar.-Apr. 1938), 166, 195n, 202; Social Democrats of CzS appeal to (Sept. 1938), 249, 266-7

Blumel, André, secretary to Blum, 267

Bohemia (to 1918): Czech majority in, 2; undemocratic Diet of, 8; educational provision for Germans and Czechs in, 9-10; claimed by CzS, 16, 17, 36, 43; Reichsrat and, 22, 23; Germans in, during takeover from Austria, 28-9, 29-30; industrialists in, 32, 33; Southern, claimed by Austria, 42, 44

Bohemian Forest District, set up as Austrian province (1918), 22

Bohemian States Right, 2

Bonnet, Georges (b. 1889), French Foreign Minister (1938-40), 167, 202; in London discussions, (Apr. 1938) 208-9, (Sept.) 264, 270, 286; presses Prague for concessions, 220, 246, 269; in speech at Pointe-de-Grave, stresses treaty obligations, 245; 'man of Munich', 302

Boothby, Robert (Lord Boothby, b. 1900), M.P., 227, 254

Bosnia and Hercegovina, annexed by Austria (1908), 8

- Bramwell, Christopher, of Foreign Office, 134
- Brand, Walter (b. 1907), assistant of Henlein, 112, 113, 114; representative of Henlein in London, 219, 228
- Brandt, Willy (b. 1913), German Federal Chancellor, 304n
- Briand, Aristide (1862-1932), French politician, 91, 98, 101
- Britain: appeasement policy of, x, xi; and frontiers of CzS (1919), 28; at Versailles, 42-4; CzS and, 89, 177; disagrees with France about CzS, 155-8; Hitler recognizes aversion of, to general European war, 185, 186; capitulates to Hitler, 195-227, in spite of warnings about Hitler's intentions, 197-8, 241; see also under names of British diplomats and politicians
- Brno (Brünn): under Austria, 6, 9; area around, claimed by Austrian Republic (1918), 31
- Brno Nationalities Programme, of Social Democrats (1899), 3-4, 13
- Brockdorff-Rantzau, Count Ulrich (1869-1928), German Foreign Minister, 36
- Brüning, Heinrich (1885-1970), German Chancellor, 101
- Bukovina, adoption of 'Moravian Compromise' in (1910), 8
- Bülów, Bernhard von (1885-1936), of German Foreign Ministry, 93, 97, 99, 100
- Bürger, Friedrich, representative of Henlein in Berlin, 121
- Butler, Richard A. (Lord Butler, b. 1902), of Foreign Office, 200, 211
- Cadogan, Sir Alexander (1884-1968), Permanent Under-Secretary, Foreign Office, 211, 212n, 218, 238
- Cambon, Jules (1845-1935), member of French delegation at Versailles, 42n
- Campbell-Bannerman, Sir Henry (1835-1908), quoted, 1
- Celovsky, Boris, historian, 293
- census, Austrian of 1910: used at Versailles, 41; proposed for use in 1938, 282
- Chamberlain, Neville (1869-1940), Prime Minister (1937-40): on Hitler's intentions and reliability, 164, 166; in discussions with Chautemps and Delbos (Nov. 1937), 165-6; tolerates and then supports Hitler's illegal actions, 183; in May 1938 crisis, 190; ignores warnings about Hitler, 197, 227; and cession of CzS border areas, 200, 210; in discussions with Daladier and Bonnet (Apr. 1938), 208; in House of Commons (24 May 1938), 201, 279; refuses to warn Hitler, 228, 254, 255, 256; and Runciman mission, 232, 240, 275-8; meets Hitler at Berchtesgaden (15 Sept.), 258-61, 278; reports on meeting, 261-3, 271; favours plebiscite, 259, 273; and question of guarantee for CzS, 260, 270, 272; Beneš on, 266; in discussions with French (18 Sept.), 268; meets Hitler at Godesberg (22 Sept.), 272, 281-5; meets French again (25 Sept.), 285-7; broadcasts on Hitler's Sports Palace speech (27 Sept.), 289; in House of Commons (28 Sept.), 274, 276; guarantees CzS, 295-7; at Munich, 290, 291-5, 297-9; against Lord Mayor's appeal for refugees, 299; in House of Commons, (Oct. 1938) 306, (Mar. 1939) 306-9; at Birmingham (Jan. 1939), 304-5
- Charles I (1887-1922), Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary, 11-12, 14, 24
- Charmatz, Richard (1879-1965), Austrian political writer, 5
- Chautemps, Camille (1885-1965), French Premier, 164-5, 166
- Cheb (Eger): Chamber of Commerce of, 32; question of cession of area of, to Germany, (1919) 40, 44, 45, 46, (1938) 275; SdP headquarters at, 256
- Cheetham, N. J. H., of Foreign Office, 137
- Christian parties, CzS, 76
- Christian Social Party, Austria, 13
- Christian Social (German) People's Party, CzS, 35, 63, 81, 85, 105; enter the Government (1926), 76; in re-election of Masaryk as President (1934), 108; in 1935 election, 123, 124; in election of Beneš as President (1935), 131; represented again in government (1936), 144-5; join SdP (1938), 171, 195
- Christie, Col. Graham (1881-1971), former Air Attaché in Berlin, and Henlein, 133, 138, 214n, 228-30
- Churchill, Sir Winston (1874-1965): meets Henlein, 213n, 214; opposed to Munich policy, 302, 303
- Ciano, Galeazzo (1903-1944), Italian Foreign Minister, 293

Index

- Clemenceau, Georges (1841-1929), French Premier, 12, 15, 44, 46
- colonies: German loss of, 93; hints on possibility of re-acquiring, 195, 240, 246
- Communist Party, CzS, 55, 63, 72, 76, 178; in 1935 election, 123, 124
- constitution of CzS: question of German participation in framing, 54-7; liberal nature of, 57-9; created by unrepresentative body, 62
- Coolidge, Archibald (1866-1928), member of American delegation at Versailles, 43-4
- Cooper, Alfred Duff (Lord Norwich, 1890-1964), First Lord of the Admiralty: opposes Munich policy, 254, 260, 262, 269-70, 274, 284-5, 287; resigns, 296
- Corbin, Charles (1881-1970), French Ambassador in London, 211
- Curtius, Julius (1877-1948), German Foreign Minister, 98, 177
- customs union, proposed between Austria and Germany, 98-100, 101; Beneš suggests extension of, to France, CzS, and if possible Italy, 101
- Czech, Ludwig (1870-1942), German Social Democrat member of CzS government, 82, 83, 128, 143, 148, 149, 172
- Czech Agrarians, see Agrarians, Czech
- Czech Social Democrats, see Social Democrats, Czech
- Czechoslovak National Council (in exile), 87
- 'Czechoslovak National Council' (1935), organization for spreading of Czech influence, 131
- Czechoslovak Republic (early years): birth of (28 Oct. 1918), 16; as economic unit, 17, 20-1, 45; suggestions for German intervention against, 24-5, 35; Germans in, 26-30, 34-5; Austrian territorial claims against, 30-4; attitude of Weimar Republic to, 35-7; memoranda from, at Versailles, 39-42; willing to cede territory to Germany, 39-40, 177, 264; decision against rectification of frontiers of, 44-7; minorities in, 48, 58-9; languages in, 49, 50, 59-61; not a 'National State', 61-2, 78, 144, 151
- Czechs, in Austria-Hungary, 2-3, 59; proposed union of Slovaks and (1848), 7-8; in Austrian governments, 8; in Reichsrat (1917), 12; Epiphany Declaration by, 12; in CzS Revolutionary National Assembly, 54, 57; move into positions previously closed to them, 65-6
- Daily Telegraph*, interviews Henlein, (1935) 133-4, (1937) 153
- Daladier, Edouard (1884-1970), French Premier, 183; in London discussions, (Apr. 1938) 208-9, (Sept.) 268-70, 286; and CzS Social Democrats, 249, 266, 267, 268; at Munich, 290, 293, 294, 297, 302; War Minister, 302n; mentioned, 183, 288
- Dawson, Geoffrey (1874-1944), editor of The Times, 251-2
- Delbos, Yvon (1895-1956), French Foreign Minister, 157, 158, 164-6, 167
- deportations: of Czechs and Moravians, planned by Hitler, 160; of Germans (1945-6), 263, 309
- Dérér, Ivan (b. 1884), Social Democrat member of CzS government, 84
- Die Zeit*, Henlein's newspaper, financed from Berlin, 132
- Disarmament Conference (1931), 98
- Dulles, Allen (1893-1969), member of American delegation at Versailles, 44
- Eden, Anthony (Earl of Avon, b. 1897), Foreign Secretary, 139; in discussions with French, 157, 158, 166; meets Beneš in Prague (1935), 175; suggests German contribution to general appeasement, 195-7; declares Munich Agreement broken by Hitler (1942), 303
- education: for Germans and Czechs in Austria-Hungary, 9-10, 11; in CzS, 49, 59, 66, 77, 136, 149, 182
- Eisenlohr, Ernst (1882-1959), German envoy in Prague: supports Czechs rather than Germans in CzS, 70; warnings from, 71, 150, 167-8; reports from, 141, 145; on Beneš, 151, 161-2, 177-8; and Agrarian Party, 169; and Sudeten Germans, 173, 174, 206-7, 216; describes Czech attitude to National Socialism, 178; Neurath's instructions to, 183; in May 1938 crisis, 188, 190-1; to British Minister on idea of 'neutralizing' CzS, 209, 224
- elections in CzS: (1919 local), 52, 55; (1920), 63, 67, 68; (1925), 63, 72, 74, 80; (1929), 63, 79, 80-1, 137, 234;

Elections (cont.)

(1935), 121-2, 123-6, 137; (1938 local), 223

electoral reform, in Austria (1907), 6

electoral system, CzS (proportional representation), 49, 52, 57, 58, 59

Evening Standard, interviews Henlein (1935), 134-5

Foreign Office, London: and Henlein, 175-7; warned of Hitler's intentions about CzS, 197-8

foreign policy of CzS, Henlein and, 213, 215, 216, 220, 226

Fourteen Points of Wilson, von Bülow wants return to (1931), 93

France: guarantees CzS frontiers, 28; relations of CzS with, 89, 90, 91, 97, 175, 176, 177, 192; and regional free trade scheme, 101; disagrees with Britain about CzS, 155-8; treaty between CzS and, 182, 223; Hitler on prospect of support for CzS from, 192, 193; affirms solidarity with Prague (Apr. 1938), 195n; see also under names of French diplomats and politicians

Francis Joseph I (1830-1916), Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary, 2, 5, 11

François-Poncet, André (b. 1887), French Ambassador in Berlin, 101

Frank, Felix, Austrian Envoy in Berlin, 64

Frank, Karl Hermann (1888-1946), deputy to Henlein, 132; in Berlin, 152; sees Hitler, 236; and Runciman mission, 232, 237, 239, 240; in Sept. 1938, 247, 250, 256, 257, 258

Freissler, Robert (1878-1950), German Nationalist member of Austrian Reichsrat, 23, 28, 31, 42

Gaulle, Charles de (1890-1970), 302

Gaus, Friedrich (1881-1955), legal adviser to German Foreign Ministry, 193

Gebsattel, Friedrich von, German Consul in Prague (1912-19), 26-7, 35, 70, 86-7

Geneva Protocols: giving aid to Austria (1922), 98; submitting all disputes to arbitration (ratified by CzS only, 1924), 92

German Agrarians, CzS, see Agrarians, German

German-Bohemia, set up as Austrian province (1918), 22, 23, 26, 28, 29, 30, 31, 52

German Christian Socials, CzS, see Christian Socials, German

German-Czechoslovak Treaty (1925), see Arbitration Treaty

German language: in Austria, 2-3, 6-7, 11, 12; in CzS, 46, 49, 50, 59-61, 70

German National Socialists, CzS, see National Socialists, German

German Nationalists, Austria, 4, 12-13; fear democracy, 6-7; 'Easter Demands' of (1916), 11, 40; German Social Democrats oppose, 21; want German military intervention against CzS, 24, 25, 26, 27, 37; form one-fifth of population, 53

German Nationalists, CzS: in temporary coalition with German Social Democrats (1918), 21; in small minority at first, 33-4, 63, 77; defeated in local elections (1919), 55; relations of, with Germany, 63, 72, 78; ask for German subsidy, 75; split in (1928), 79; lose support to National Socialists, (1929) 81, (1933) 104; shift towards Nazis, 104; banned (1933), 106, 113

German Social Democrats, CzS, see Social Democrats, German

German Southern Moravia, set up as Austrian province (1918), 23, 28

Germans in CzS, 16; proposal for Minister to represent, 17, 54, 67; not represented in provisional parliament, 18; Masaryk on, 19-20; appeal to Wilson, 21; no enthusiasm for secession among, 25-6; during takeover by Czechs, 26-30, 34-5; votes of, 33, 52; estimated number of, 41, 73; participate in government, 76-85; see also Agrarians, Christian Socials, German Nationalists (political parties), and Sudeten Germans; driven out (1945-6), 263, 309

Germany, Imperial: suggestions for intervention in CzS by (1918), 20, 24-5

Germany, Third Reich: payments to Henlein from, 116, 120, 131-2, 137, 213n; Nazi Reichstag deputies in, 127; CzS in foreign policy of, 175-94; Henlein demands union of Sudeten areas with, 257, 261, 263; see also German diplomats and politicians, especially Hitler

Index

- Germany, Weimar Republic: attitude of, to CzS, 35-7; suggested cession of territory by CzS to, 39-40, 44, 177, 264; prospect of incorporation of German Austria in, see under Austria; Masaryk on need for friendly relations with, 70; CzS 'Activists' apply for sanction of, for joining CzS government, 74-5; unemployment in, 82; relations of CzS with (1918-33), 86-102; customs union of Austria and, proposed, 98-100, 101
- Gestapo, in surrendered areas of CzS, 301
- Glaise-Horstenau, Alois (1882-1946), Austrian Nazi, 196
- Godesberg, Chamberlain meets Hitler at, 272, 281-5
- Goebbels, Josef (1897-1945), 178, 250
- Goering, Hermann (1893-1946), 152, 164, 229, 276; speaks at Nuremberg, 250-1; assures British that Germans will not attack CzS, 255; threatens destruction of Prague (1939), 306; trial of, 183-4, 293
- Grey, Sir Edward (Viscount Grey, 1863-1933), Foreign Secretary, 16
- Groscurth, Helmut (1888-1943), of German Military Counter-Espionage, 236
- guarantee to CzS: Chamberlain abandons any thought of (Mar. 1938), 201; Anglo-French offer of (Sept. 1938), 202, 269, 270-2, 280, 284, 289, 290, 291, 295-7; declared invalid after Hitler occupies CzS, 307
- Gymnastics League (German Nationalist, CzS), 108, 110, 112-13, 114, 140
- Hácha, Emil (1872-1945), President of CzS (1938-9), 306, 307, 308
- Hacker, Gustav (b.1900), Sudeten German politician, 171
- Hadow, Robert R. (later Sir Robert, 1895-1963), of British Legation in Prague, 137-8
- Hailsham, Viscount (1872-1950), Lord President of Council, 287
- Halifax, Lord (1881-1959), Foreign Secretary (1938-40): visits Hitler (1937), 164-5; reports German troop movements to Cabinet (May 1938), 187; suggests CzS concessions to SdP, 198-202 passim, 218; meets French: suggests pressure on Prague, 208, 209; favours idea of 'neutralizing' CzS, 210, 224; ignores warnings, 217; accepts statements of Henlein's agents, 219; favours plebiscite, 224, 253, 260; on SdP proposals, 225-6; sends Runciman mission, 230, 240; in discussion on military support for CzS if invaded, 254; on Times leader (7 Sept.), 252; before Berchtesgaden meeting, 259; on self-determination, 262; on guarantee for CzS, 270; against further pressure on CzS (25 Sept.), 286-7; mentioned, 211, 225, 228, 273, 302
- Hampl, Antonín (1874-1941), leader of Czech Social Democrats, 81
- Haniel, Edgar (1870-1935), of German Foreign Ministry, 68, 90
- Harvey, Oliver (later Lord Harvey, 1903-68), secretary to Eden, 197
- Haushofer, Albrecht (1903-45), of Dienststelle Ribbentrop, 179-82
- Heeren, Victor von, German Chargé d'Affaires in Prague, 78-9
- Heine, Rudolf, German Nationalist member of Austrian Reichsrat, 13
- Hencke, Andor (b. 1895), German Chargé d'Affaires in Prague, 138, 238, 239
- Henderson, Alexander, journalist in Prague, 233n
- Henderson, Arthur (1863-1935), Foreign Secretary, 98
- Henderson, Ian (later Sir Ian, 1901-71), member of Runciman mission, 257
- Henderson, Sir Nevile (1882-1942), British Ambassador in Berlin: reports German troop movements, (May 1938) 187, (Mar. 1939) 306; meets Ribbentrop, 191, 278; instructions to, 195-6; reports from, 217; wants action in favour of Henlein, 238, and no action against Hitler, 254, 255, 256, 305
- Henlein, Konrad (1898-1945), xi, 110-11; member of Gymnastic League, 110, 112-13, and Kameradschaftsbund, 111; forms Sudeten German Home Front (1933), 106, 108-9, 113-15; secret henchman of Hitler, 109, 114, 115-16, 138, 142-3, 147; selected for leading position by Nazis, 113, 119; German subsidies to, 116, 120, 131-2, 137, 213n; denies Nazi connections, 117-18, 119, 133, 134, 135-6, 153, 164; Programmatic Declarations of, 117-18; German press forbidden to criticize, 119; gains Czech Agrarian support, 120-1; in

Henlein (cont.)

1935 election, 121-2, 123-6; his party renamed Sudeten German Party (SdP), 122;

'old' Nazis and, 122-3; SdP members of Parliament swear allegiance to, 127; in London (Aug. and Dec. 1935), 132-40; meets Hitler (1936), 140, and writes to him, 142-3; speaks on cultural tasks of Sudeten Germans, 141-2; Nazi support for, 143; Eisenlohr on, 150; becomes more openly Nazi, 152, 153, 158, 202; meets Hodža, 153, 192; visits London again (Oct. 1937), 153-5; British idea of entry of, into CzS government, 156, 157; exploits Teplice incident, 159; reports to Hitler, 162-4; invited to contribute to Czech newspaper, 168; claims to represent Sudeten Germans, 171; meets Hitler, (Mar. 1938), 172-3, (May) 191, and Ribbentrop, 173-4;

proclaims Nazi views, 203, 205; Karlovy Vary demands of, 205-7, 208, 225-7, 232, 237, 239, 243, 257, 273; in London once more (May 1938), 210-15; asks for advice in Berlin, 216, 238; in communication with Vansittart, 217-22, 228, and Christie, 229-30; number of votes against (May-June 1938), 223; offers to mediate between London and Berlin, 229-30; and Runciman mission, 232-3, 235-7, 245, 257, 278; rejects Third Plan of Beneš, 239-40; meets Hitler at request of British, 243-4, 246-7; Henderson on, 255-6; demands 'return to Germany', 257, 261, 263; speaks in Vienna (1941) on early days of SdP, 119; commits suicide (1945), 119n; see also Sudeten German Party

Herriot, Edouard (1872-1957), French politician, 91, 92

Hess, Rudolf (b. 1894), 119, 120, 121

Himmler, Heinrich (1900-45), 152, 181

Hindenburg, Paul von (1847-1934), German President, 97

Hitler, Adolf (1889-1945): comes to power (1933), x, 84, 103, 105; and Locarno Pact, 94; prefers Henlein to 'old' Nazi competitors, 115, 119; aped by Henlein, 123, 127; successes of (1935), 125; Koch's messages not shown to, 130; meetings of Henlein with, see under Henlein; directives of,

for destruction of CzS, 160-1, 187, 192-3, 198, 300; sees Halifax (Nov. 1937), 164-5; takes Austria (Mar. 1938), 169-70, 183, 185, 196, 308; orders SdP to make unacceptable demands, 173, 207, 216; and non-aggression pacts, 176-7, 181, 284; use of Sudeten Germans by, 180, 200, 201; rejects Haushofer's proposals, 181-3; in May 1938 crisis, 187, 189; ignores Arbitration Treaty with CzS, 193-4, and promises to Belgium, 196; Henlein's subservience to, 219; generals plot against use of force by, 241, 287; speaks at Nuremberg (13 Sept. 1938), 250, 252-3, 255, 256; meets Chamberlain at Berchtesgaden (15 Sept.), 258-63, 271, and at Godesberg (22 Sept.), 272, 281-5; speaks at Sports Palace (26 Sept.), 286, 288; Chamberlain's message to (28 Sept.), 291; at Munich, 290, 292-4, 297, 298; occupies remainder of CzS (Mar. 1939), 305, 306, 307-9; mentioned, 174, 208, 227, 245, 265, 289

Hitler salute, adopted by SdP, 152, 231

Hlinka, Andrej (1864-1938), leader of Slovak People's Party, 76, 131

Hoare, Sir Samuel (Lord Templewood, 1880-1955): Foreign Secretary, 135; Home Secretary, 258, 273, 281

Hodža, Milan (1878-1944), Slovak Agrarian politician: Minister of Education, 77, 84; Premier (1935-8), 62, 128; negotiates agreement with German democratic parties, 146, 148; meets Henlein, 153, 192; meets German envoy, 167, 216; Ribbentrop on, 174; meets SdP representatives, 172, 203, 215; announces Nationalities Statute (Apr. 1938), 203; British envoy urges conciliation of SdP by, 209; Newton on, 222, 265; and Runciman mission, 230; ultimatum from SdP to, 256-7; denies Bonnet's version of events (of 21 Sept. 1938), 280n

Hohenlohe-Langenburg, Max (1900-68), intermediary between Henlein and Foreign Office, 141, 211, 219, 228, 232

Hore-Belisha, Leslie (Lord Hore-Belisha, 1893-1957), Secretary for War, 259-60, 270, 287

Hossbach, Col. Friedrich, of German General Staff, 160

Index

- Hossbach Protocol, on Hitler's decision to overthrow CzS (5 Nov. 1937), 160-2
- House, Edward (1856-1938), member of American delegation at Versailles, 45, 46
- Hull, Cordell (1871-1955), US Secretary of State, 210n
- Hultschin territory, ceded by Germany to CzS (1919), 40, 93, 177
- Hungarians, in CzS, 50, 260, 270, 271, 282, 296
- Hungary: Slovaks in, 2, 4, 59; peoples of, 4; excluded from Emperor Charles's promise of reconstruction (1918), 14
- Hussarek, Max (1865-1935), Austrian Premier (1918), 13
- industrialists, CzS, 26-6, 32-3, 36; and policy of German Nationalists, 79; and policy of Nazis in Germany, 105
- industrialists, Germany: beg for British support for CzS, 254
- industry in CzS: German share of, 67, 83
- Inskip, Sir Thomas (Viscount Caldecote, 1876-1947), Minister for Coordination of Defence, 200
- International Commission, to determine CzS frontiers, set up at Munich, 295, 298, 299
- Italy: and frontiers of CzS (1918), 28; in regional free trade scheme, 101; Henlein on Fascism in, 117; at Munich, 290, 291-5
- Jäckh, Ernst (1874-1959), German writer, 197, 198
- Jaksch, Wenzel (1896-1966), German Social Democrat member of CzS Parliament, 85, 108, 148, 172, 233
- Jews: in Eastern Europe, US and, 47, 48; in CzS, 104; Henlein and, 115, 134-5, 235; flee from surrendered areas of CzS, 301; see also anti-semitism
- Jodl, Alfred (1890-1946), German general, 185, 191, 241, 242
- Jokl, Hans (1878-1935), German Social Democrat member of CzS Parliament, 23, 33
- Jung, Rudolf (1882-1945), German National Socialist member of CzS Parliament, 106, 114
- Kameradschaftsbund* (KB, Comradeship League), 111-12, 114, 143
- Karlovy Vary (Karlsbad), eight demands made by Henlein in speech at, 205-7, 208, 211; Runciman mission and, 232, 237, 243, 273; Beneš and, 239; 'out of date', 257
- Kašpar, Karel, Archbishop of Prague, 247
- Keitel, Wilhelm (1882-1946), German Commander-in-Chief, 186, 191
- Keller, Rudolf (1875-1964), editor of Prager Tagblatt, 68
- Kellogg Pact (1928), outlawing war, 182
- Kennedy, A. L., sub-editor of The Times, 251
- Kiesinger, Kurt (b. 1904), German Federal Chancellor, 304
- Kirkpatrick, Sir Ivone (1897-1964), British diplomat, 282
- Kislinger, Josef, Secretary of Federation of German Industries, CzS, 105
- Kleist-Schmenzin, Ewald von (1890-1945), member of German resistance, 241
- Klofáč, Václav (1868-1942), Minister of Defence, CzS, 35
- Koch, Walter (1870-1967), German Minister in Prague: reports from, 63-4, 72-3, 74, 75, 85; supports Czechs rather than Germans in CzS, 67, 70-1, 83, 151; on Czech historical struggle against Germany, 88; on Beneš, 89, 90, 91, 93, 97, 103; on Czech attitude to Mittleuropa, 100; on Jews in CzS, 104; on effects of Nazi measures on German industry in CzS, 105; on Henlein's organizations, 111, 114; statement by, on retiring (1935), 128-30, 162
- Köpke, Gerhard, German diplomat, 99
- Kordt, Erich (b. 1903), secretary to Ribbentrop, 192, 292
- Kramář, Karel (1860-1957): first CzS Premier (Czech Nationalist), 11, 17, 18, 65, 67; replaced by Tusar, 55; advocate of 'National State', 61, 62, 144, 151; leader of National Democrats, 76; conflict between Beneš and, 87-8; refuses to stand for election as President (1935), 130
- Krebs, Hans (1888-1947), German National Socialist member of CzS Parliament, 106, 113, 114, 117, 143; minor official in Berlin, 221, 295
- Kreissl, Anton, associated with Henlein, 132
- Krofta, Kamil (1876-1945), non-party historian, CzS Foreign Minister (1936-8), 62, 144, 180; in May 1938 crisis, 188, 209; in Sept. 1938, 280, 289, 298

- Kundt, Ernst (1897-1947), SdP member of CzS Parliament: and Runciman mission, 231, 232, 239, 240; in Sept. 1938, 247, 251; directs Hitler's Fifth Column within CzS, 297
- Künzel, Franz (b. 1901), assistant of Henlein, 116
- Labour Party, Britain: foreign policy of (1924), 91-2; condemn betrayal of CzS, 265n
- Lacroix, François de, French Minister in Prague, 156, 264, 280
- languages: 'official', in new states (1919), 48; in CzS courts of justice, 49, 50, 60; law of, in CzS, 46, 59-61, 70
- Lansing, Robert (1864-1928), US Secretary of State, 42, 43, 44, 46
- law courts in CzS, languages in, 49, 50, 60
- League of Nations: admission of Germany to, 93, 94; Germany leaves, 176; CzS policy within, 177, 181, 182; covenant of, on territorial integrity, 259, 291
- Liberals, German, in CzS, 71 171
- Liberec (Reichenberg), temporary capital of German Bohemia (1918), 23, 26, 28; Chamber of Commerce of, 32
- libraries, for minorities in CzS, 59
- Lindemann, Frederick (Lord Cherwell, 1886-1957), interpreter for Churchill, 214n
- Lipinski, Richard (1867-1933), Minister of the Interior, Saxony, 37
- Lloyd George, David (Viscount Lloyd George, 1863-1945), at Versailles, 15, 38, 42, 43, 44, 46
- Locarno Conference and Pact (1925), 74, 93, 199; Pact abrogated by Hitler, 183, 193
- Lodgman-Auen, Rudolf (1877-1962), leader of German Nationalists in CzS, 23, 28-9, 37, 42, 56, 67; speech of, in Parliament, 68-9; opposed to any negotiation with Czechs, 71, 73; loses his seat, 72
- Lojewski, German journalist, 216-17
- Lord Mayor of London, opens fund for German democratic refugees, against government advice, 299
- Lorenz, Werner, head of Volksdeutsche Mittelstelle, 216
- Ludendorff, Erich (1865-1937), chief of German General Staff, 13, 24
- Luther, Hans (1879-1967), German Chancellor, 93
- MacDonald, James Ramsay (1866-1937), 91, 92, 103
- MacFarlane, General Mason (1889-1953), British Military Attaché in Berlin, 252
- Macnamara, J. R. (1905-44), Conservative M.P., 214
- Maltzan, Ago von (1877-1927), of German Foreign Ministry, 72
- Malypetr, Jan (1873-1947), Czech Agrarian, Premier, 121
- Mandel, Georges (1885-1944), French Minister, opposes appeasement, 269, 270
- Mantoux, Paul (1877-1956), secretary to Czechoslovak Commission, Versailles, 46n
- Marx, Wilhelm (1863-1946), German Chancellor, 95
- Masaryk, Jan (1886-1948), CzS Minister in London, 1, 210: meets Henlein, 215; reports from, 245; report from, intercepted in Berlin, 276-7; and Times leader, 252; in Sept. 1938, 270, 286, 292; Foreign Minister of CzS government in exile, 303
- Masaryk, Thomas Garrigue (1850-1937), President of CzS (1918-35), x; as one-man party (1909), 7, 8; abroad during war, 10, 15, 16, 17, 18; elected President (Nov. 1918), 19; inaugural address of, 19-20, 65; independent views of, 36, 54-5; preaches full ethnical justice, 56, 59-60, 69-70, 77, 79-80, 104, 145; appointments made or proposed by, 67-8; on National State idea, 80, 144; criticizes French foreign policy, 90n; re-elected (1934), 108; and Henlein, 121-2, 127; resigns (1935), 130; mentioned, 36
- Massey, Vincent (1887-1967), Canadian High Commissioner in London, 284
- Mastný, Vojtěch (1874-1954); CzS Minister in Berlin, 97, 177, 182, 183; meets Hitler, 176; in May 1938 crisis, 188-9
- Mayr-Harting, Robert (1874-1947), German Christian Social member of CzS government, 55, 74, 76, 77, 85
- Meissner, Alfred (1871-1952), Czech Social Democrat member of CzS government, 83
- Meissner, Otto (1880-1953), head of Reich Chancellery, 142n
- minorities: at Versailles, 47-8; in CzS, 48, 58-9; see also Nationalities Statute
- Mittleuropa*, concept of, 10, 95-6, 97

Index

- Molisch, Paul, Austrian historian, 32, 34
 Moravia (to 1918): Czech majority in, 2; undemocratic Diet of, 9; educational provision for Germans and Czechs in, 9-10; claimed by CzS, 16, 36, 43; Reichsrat and (1918), 22-3; Germans in, during transfer from Austria, 29; Southern, claimed by Austria, 42, 44; Beneš travels in (1935), 145
 Moravian Compromise (1905), 8-10
 Moravian National Committee (1918), Germans on, 29, 67
 Moravská Ostrava, 'incident' at (Sept. 1938), 250
 Munich Agreement: area lost to CzS by, 266; CzS not included in making, 290, 291-5; question of guarantee in, 295-7; capitulation of CzS to, 297-302; invalidity of, 302-4; aftermath of, 304-9; The Times on (1969), 252
 Mussolini, Benito (1883-1945), at Munich, 290, 292, 293, 294

Národní Vjbor (National Committee), CzS (1918), 16, 27, 28, 29-30, 67; hands over to Revolutionary National Assembly, 54; Imperial German Consul-General and, 86, 87
 National Democratic Party, CzS, 76
 National Socialism: Eisenlohr on CzS attitude to, 178; Henlein and Weltanschauung of, 206, 215, 220, 221, 226, 237, 239, 248
 National Socialist Party, Austria, banned (1933), 105
 National Socialist Party, CzS, leftist organization, 80-1
 National Socialist Party, German, CzS, 63, 126; ask for subsidy from Germany, 75; gain support from Nationalists, 81, 104, 105, and from Agrarians, 105; dissolved (1933), 106, 113, 239; members of, in SdP, 115, 122, 143
 National Socialist Party, Germany: economic crisis and, 82; electoral ascendancy of, 104; effect of self-sufficiency measures of, on German industry in CzS, 105; Henlein denies connections with, 117-18, 119, 133, 134, 135-6, 153, 164
 Nationalities Statute, 203, 204, 215, 221, 225-6
 Naumann, Friedrich (1860-1919), author of Mitteleuropa, 10
 Nečas, Jaromír (1885-1945), Czech Social Democrat member of CzS government, 83, 248, 265-6, 267, 268
 Němec, Bohumil (1872-1966), Czech botanist, suggested as President, 130, 131
 Neunteufel, Raimund (1862-1937), Styrian member of Austrian Reichsrat, 13
 Neurath, Konstantin von (1873-1956), German Foreign Minister (1932-8), 140, 177, 198, 218, 255, 293; trial of, 183-4
 Newton, Basil (later Sir Basil, 1889-1965), British Minister in Prague (1937-9): instructions to, 155-6, 220, 221, 222, 230, 253; reports from, 158, 189-90, 204; and SdP, 195, 226; and idea of 'neutralizing' CzS, 204, 209, 224; meets Beneš (Sept. 1938), 244, 245, 264; meets Hodža, 265; conveys British demands to Beneš, 279-80, 289; informed of CzS acceptance, 298
 Nichols, Philip (later Sir Philip, 1894-1962), British diplomat, 156
 Nicholson, Sir Godfrey (b. 1901), M.P., 214
 Nicolson, Sir Harold (1886-1968), M.P., 214-15
 non-aggression pacts, proposed 176-7, 180, 181, 284
 Norton, Clifford (later Sir Clifford, b. 1891), of Foreign Office, 135

 Oldofredi, Hieronymus, member of Austrian delegation at Versailles, 42
 Olympic Games, Berlin (1936), 140
 Opava (Troppau), temporary capital of 'Sudetenland' (1918), 22, 23, 28; industrialists at, 32
 Option Treaty, between CzS and Germany (1938), for exchange of populations, 297
 Orlando, Vittorio (1860-1952), Italian Foreign Minister, 44
 Osusky, Stefan (b. 1889): CzS envoy in Paris, 220; signs agreement with Daldier, 302n

 Pacher, Rafael (1857-1936), German Nationalist member of Austrian Reichsrat, 23
 Palacký, František (1798-1876), Czech politician and historian, 7-8
 pan-European ideas, 98, 99
 pan-Germanism, 41; Henlein on, 117, 133; Koch on, 130; Beneš on, 248

- pan-Slavism, 73, 117
- Papen, Franz von (1879-1971), German Chancellor, 97
- Patrick, Mark (1893-1942), Conservative M.P., 214
- Paul-Boncour, Joseph (1873-1972), French Foreign Minister, 167, 202
- Peroutka, Ferdinand (b. 1894), Czech historian, 28
- Peto, Geoffrey (1878-1956), member of Runciman mission, 257
- Pfitzner, Joseph (1902-45), Sudeten German historian and politician, 10
- Phipps, Sir Eric (1875-1945), British Ambassador in Paris, 156, 157, 224, 225, 249
- Pichon, Stephen (1857-1933), of French delegation at Versailles, 43
- plebiscites: for self-determination, 42; in the Saar (1935), 126; in Hitler's seizure of Austria, 165, 223; Henlein and, 219, 222, 229, 257; Halifax plays with idea of, 224; Hitler agrees to, 246, demands, 263, doesn't mention at Berchtesgaden 274, demands at Godesberg, 283; Czechs and wording of, 253-4; Chamberlain would agree to, 259, 273-4; Runciman sceptical about, 275; accepted at Munich, but dropped, 295
- Poincaré, Raymond (1863-1934), French Premier, 900
- Poland: minorities in, 37, 48; Germany and, 92-3, 100, 103; German agreement with, 136; German Arbitration Treaty with, 183
- Poles, in CzS, 50, 84, 260, 270, 271, 282, 296
- Popovici, Aurel (1863-1917), Romanian politician, 5
- priests in CzS, state stipends of, 76
- public investment in CzS: in Czech and German areas, (1934-5) 144, (1938) 148; conditions governing, altered in favour of local firms (1937), 149
- radio, CzS: Henlein complains of, 141
- railways, CzS State: German employees of, 149
- Rašín, Alois (1867-1923), Czech politician, 11, 30
- Rathenau, Walter (1867-1922), German Foreign Minister, 89, 95
- Rauschning, Hermann (b. 1887), German politician, 160
- Redlich, Josef (1869-1936), Austrian politician, 67
- refugees: from Nazi Germany, in CzS, 104; from ceded areas of CzS (1938), 299, 301
- Regendanz, Wilhelm (1882-1955), German banker, 101, 102
- Reichsrat, Vienna: German language in, 3; in 1914-18 war, 10, 12; at end of war, 22
- Renner, Karl (1870-1950), Austrian Social Democrat, 4, 5, 13; State Chancellor (Premier), 31, 33, 41-2, 43, 52-3
- Revolutionary National Assembly, CzS: National Committee hands over to, 54; and constitution, 56, 59, 61
- Reynaud, Paul (1878-1966), French Minister, against appeasement, 270
- Rhineland, German re-occupation of (1936), 176
- Ribbentrop, Joachim (1893-1946), German Foreign Minister (1938-45): as German Ambassador in London, 159; Dienststelle of, 119, 179; and Henlein, 119, 172-3, 174, 229, 239, 255; in May 1938 crisis, 188, 191, 209; on journey to Munich, 293
- Ripka, Hubert (1895-1958), Czech politician, 285
- Robinson, Vandeleur, Quaker relief worker, 301
- Romania, minorities in, 48
- Roosevelt, President Franklin D. (1882-1945), suggested by CzS as arbitrator, 290
- Royal Institute of International Affairs, London (Chatham House), Henlein speaks at, (1935) 133, 134, (1937) 153-4
- Ruhr, French occupy (1923), 90-1
- Runciman, Walter (Lord Runciman of Doxford, 1869-1949): appointed as 'independent' adviser to CzS, 230-1; meets Henlein, 232-3; meets Social Democrats, 233-4; declines meeting with Hitler, 236; sends Henlein to Hitler, 237, 243, 244; proposals formulated by, 240, 247; in general agreement with Fourth Plan of Beneš, 249-50; Henderson on Henlein's report of, 255; recalled to London, 263; reports to government, 272-5; written 'report' of, 275-8
- Russia: CzS treaty with (1935), 169, 178, 180-1, 182, 270-1; Chamberlain and, 260, 272, 284; not involved at Munich, 299

Index

- Rutha, Heinrich (1897-1937), assistant of Henlein, 158
- Ruthenia (formerly Hungarian), in CzS, 41, 48
- Ruthenians, in CzS, 50
- Saar plebiscite (1935), 136
- Saenger, Samuel (1864-1944), German Minister in Prague, 36, 70, 89
- Sandys, Duncan (b. 1908), M.P., 214
- Sargent, Orme (later Sir Orme, 1884-1962), of Foreign Office, 135, 138, 157, 306
- Saxony: and German Nationalists (1918), 24-5, 27, 37; districts of CzS projecting into, 40
- Schleicher, Kurt von (1882-1934), Reich Chancellor, 101
- Schmidt, Paul (1899-1970), Hitler's interpreter, 292
- Schmundt, Hitler's adjutant, 189
- Schober, Johann (1874-1932), Austrian Foreign Minister, 98
- Schubert, Carl von (1882-1947), of German Foreign Ministry, 64, 95-6, 99
- Schuschnigg, Kurt von (b. 1897), Austrian Federal Chancellor, 157, 169, 196, 199
- Schwerin-Krosigk, Count Lutz (b. 1887), German Finance Minister (1933-45), 120
- Sebekovsky, Wilhelm (b. 1907), assistant to Henlein, 217, 239, 247
- Selby, Sir Walford (1881-1965), British diplomat, 213n
- self-determination, 16, 30, 31-2; only meaningful if state is economically viable, 17, 20-1, 43; at Versailles, 38-9, 42, 44; for Sudeten Germans, Koch on, 63-4; Henlein aims to deprive Czechs of right to, 163; Chamberlain and Halifax on, 262
- Seliger, Josef (1870-1920), leader of German-Bohemian workers, 3; deputy-governor of German-Bohemia, 23, 29-30, 34, 42; leader of German Social Democrats, CzS, 52, 69
- Serbs, Czechs and, 10
- Seton-Watson, Robert W. (1897-1951), 16
- Seyss-Inquart, Arthur (1891-1946), Austrian Nazi politician, 163, 196
- Silesia: Czech minority in, 2; claimed by CzS, 16, 36, 43; Reichsrat and (1918), 22-3; industrialists in, 32; merged with Moravia for administration (1927), 78
- Simon, Sir John (Viscount Simon, 1873-1954): Foreign Secretary, 103; Chancellor of the Exchequer, 260, 273, 281
- Sinclair, Sir Archibald (Lord Thurso, 1890-1970), Liberal leader, 214, 309n
- Slovak People's Party, 76, 131
- Slovakia (formerly Hungarian), in CzS, 16, 41, 84, 124; educational institutions in, 66, 84
- Slovaks: under Hungary, 2, 4, 59; proposed union of Czechs and (1848), 7-8; in Revolutionary National Assembly (1918), 54, 57; Chamberlain and, 271; declare independence (Mar. 1939), 297, 306
- Slovenes, 13
- Social Democratic (All-Austrian) Party, Austria: Brno Nationalities Programme of (1899), 3-4, 13; force electoral reform (1907), 6
- Social Democratic (Czech) Party, Austria, 14
- Social Democratic (German) Party, Austria: members of, in Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia, 13, 14, 21
- Social Democratic Party (Czech), CzS, 72, 80, 85, 121; and German Social Democrats, 81-2; number of votes for (1935), 124; join with German Social Democrats in appeal to Blum (Sept. 1938), 248-9
- Social Democratic Party (German), CzS: in temporary coalition with German Nationalists (1918), 21; demonstrations called by, lead to bloodshed; 34; votes for, 52, 63, 80; in discussions with government, 56; question of place in government for, 67, 68, 85; lose ground in 1925 elections, 72; and Czech Social Democrats, 81-2; actively resist Nazis, 105, 107, 108, 121; Henlein on, 169, 171; assure Beneš of their loyalty (1938), 170, 172; ousted from government by threats from SdP, 172, 195; votes for, in local elections (1938), 223; present memorandum to Runciman (Sept. 1938), 233-4; join with Czech Social Democrats in appeal to Blum, 248-9; urgently appeal to British and French, 279; Chamberlain and, 282-3; Daladier and, 286; comment on Munich in newspaper of, 292; proclamation by (1 Oct. 1938), 300; Gestapo and, 301; as displaced persons, 301-2

- Solf, Wilhelm (1862-1926), German Foreign Minister, 24
- South Tyrol, 38
- Spears, Sir Edward (b. 1886), Conservative M.P., 214
- Spina, Franz (1868-1938), of German Agrarian Party, CzS, 30, 71-2; member of government, 74, 76, 79, 82, 85, 107; after 1935 election, 128, 143; resigns on Agrarians joining SdP, 171
- Srdinko, Orakar (1880-1930), Czech politician, 12
- Staněk, František (1867-1936), Czech politician, 12
- Stanhope, Lord (1880-1967): of Foreign Office, 135; President of Board of Education, 267
- Steinacher, Hans (1892-1971), head of Volksbund für das Deutschtum im Ausland, 115-16, 120
- Stewart, Michael (b. 1906), British Foreign Secretary, 304
- Stopford, Robert (b. 1895), member of Runciman mission, 233n
- Stoupal, Victor (1888-1943), Moravian Agrarian politician, 120
- strategic considerations, at Versailles, 42, 43, 45
- Stresemann, Gustav (1869-1929), German Foreign Minister, 73, 75, 78, 93, 177; and CzS frontiers, 92
- Sudeten German Freikorps, 281
- Sudeten German Home Front: banned Nazis reappear as, 106, 108, 113-15, 116, 121-2; 'old' Nazis in, 115, 122-3, 143; Henlein on early years of, 119; renamed Sudeten German Party, 122, 178
- Sudeten German Party (SdP), 122, 178; number of votes for (1935), 124; M.P.s of, swear personal obedience to Henlein, 127; supported by VDA, 129; and election of President (1935), 130-1; Eisenlohr's warning to, 150; deputation from, at Nazi rally at Nuremberg, 153; Britain suggests CzS government should make agreement with, 155-6, 157; Agrarians and Christian Socials join (1938), 170-1, 195; instructed by Hitler to make unacceptable demands, 173, 180, 207, 216; Beneš on, 178; break off negotiations with government, 189; funeral of couriers belonging to, 190; Britain presses Beneš to accept members of, into government, 195, 203; Runciman and, 231; offers of CzS government to, (first) 204-5, (second) 215-16, 255-6, (third) 238-40, 245, 249, (fourth) 247-50, 277
- Sudeten Germans: use of name, 22; in Austria, 10; in CzS, 63-4, 72; cultural autonomy for? 84; Nazis among, 105; German Nazis require 65,000 of, for their Four-Year Plan, 152; taken as identical with Henleinists, by Henlein, 163, and by Halifax, 201; Delbos on Hitler's intentions for, 165-6; Hitler's misuse of, 180, 200, 201
- Sudetenland: use of name, 22, 23; set up as Austrian province (1918), 22-3, 31, 52-3
- Švehla, Antonín (1873-1933), Czech Agrarian politician, 29, 69; Premier, 76, 78
- swastika, badge of German Gymnastics League, 113
- Switzerland, 150; Czechoslovakia to become a second?, 41, 47-51
- Taub, Siegfried (1876-1946), German Social Democrat member of CzS Parliament, 233
- Taylor, A. J. P. (b. 1906), historian, quoted, 8-9
- telephone tapping, by Nazis, of conversations between London and Prague, 276-7
- Teplíce (Teplitz), 34; 'incident' at (1937), 159
- Thompson, Dorothy, American political writer, 277
- Times, The*, fateful leader in (Sept. 1938), 251-2
- Tolischus, Otto, American journalist, 163
- Tomášek, František (1869-1938), Czech Social Democrat politician, 18
- trade agreement, between Germany and CzS (1918), 35
- trade unions, CzS: Federation of German, 107, 234; German Free, 171
- Trauttmansdorff, Karl Max (1900-1965), of German Ministry of Labour, 179, 180, 182
- Tusar, Vlastimil (1880-1924), Czech Social Democrat politician, second CzS Premier, 55, 56, 57, 67; resigns (1920), 68; CzS Minister in Berlin, 89-90
- Udržal, František (1866-1938), Czech Agrarian politician, Premier, 81

Index

- Undén, Thorsten (1877-1951), Swedish Foreign Minister, 94
- unemployment: and Nazi successes, x, 104, 105, 125; measures for relief of, in CzS, 82-3, 124-5, 136, 143-4
- United States: and frontiers of CzS, 28, 304; at Versailles, 42-4; newspapers in, report British approval of ceding border areas of CzS to Germany (May 1938), 210
- universities: German and Czech, in Austria, 9, 11
- Vansittart, Sir Robert (Lord Vansittart, 1881-1957), of Foreign Office: meets Henlein (1936), 138-9; meets Hohenlohe (1936), 141, 219; annoyed with French Minister in Prague (1937), 156; meets Henlein again (May 1938), 210, 211-14; views of, on way to deal with Germany, 217-18; 'kicked upstairs' (Jan. 1938), 218; transmits messages from Henlein (July 1938), 228; advice of, to Runciman mission, 232; reproaches Jan Masaryk for behaviour of CzS, 245; opposes Chamberlain's meeting with Hitler, 258
- 'Vansittartism', 138
- Versailles Peace Conference, 38-53
- Viererbl, Karl, Nazi journalist, 114
- Volksbund für das Deutschtum im Ausland* (VDA), 115, 116, 129
- Volksdeutsche Mittelstelle*, secret agency, 216
- Wallace, W. V., historian, 187
- Wedel, Count Botho von, German Ambassador in Vienna, 25, 33, 36, 40
- Weizsäcker, Ernst von (1882-1951), of German Foreign Ministry, 188, 237, 256n, 292, 293, 296
- Welczek, Count Johannes, German Ambassador in Paris, 246
- Wiener, Robert (1895-1948), German Social Democrat politician, CzS, 243
- Wilson, Sir Horace (1882-1972), industrial adviser to British government, 211, 281; carries message to Hitler (Sept. 1938), 286, 287
- Wilson, President Woodrow (1856-1924), 15, 21, 30, 46-7
- Windirsch, Franz, German Agrarian deputy, CzS Parliament, 85
- Windischgraetz, Prince Alfred (1787-1862), Austrian general, 30
- Winterton, Lord (1883-1962), Chancellor of Duchy of Lancaster, 262
- Witte, Eugen de (1882-1952), German Social Democrat deputy, CzS Parliament, 107
- Woermann, Ernst (b. 1888), German Chargé d'Affaires in London, 198
- Wood, Sir Kingsley (1881-1943), Secretary for Air, 287
- world economic crisis (from 1929), x, 34, 82-3
- Zajiček, Erwin (b. 1890), German Christian Social member of CzS government, 145, 171, 234
- Zeitler, Kurt, German general, 189
- Zetland, Marquess of (1876-1961), Secretary for India, 262
- Zierhut, Wolfgang (1886-1945), German Agrarian deputy, CzS Parliament, 107
- Zips (German) Party, Slovakia, 124