

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
Legal Materials	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xxiii
Notes on Editors and Contributors	xxix

PART I. FUNDAMENTAL AND INTRODUCTORY ISSUES

1. Mega-Regional Trade Agreements: New Orientations for EU External Relations? 3
Stefan Grillner, Walter Obwexer, and Erich Vranes
2. CETA, TTIP, and TiSA: New Trends in International Economic Law 17
Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann

PART II. SELECTED SECTORAL ISSUES

3. The Contents of CETA, TTIP, and TiSA: The (Envisaged) Trade Disciplines 47
Erich Vranes
4. The Reform of Investment Protection Rules in CETA, TTIP, and Other Recent EU FTAs: Convincing? 87
Christian Tietje and Kevin Crow
5. Authority, Legitimacy, and Fragmentation in the (Envisaged) Dispute Settlement Disciplines in Mega-Regionals 111
Stephan W Schill
6. Intellectual Property and Mega-Regional Trade Agreements: Progress and Opportunities Missed 151
Thomas Cottier
7. CETA, TTIP, TiSA, and Data Protection 175
Walter Berka
8. CETA, TTIP, TiSA, and Financial Services 187
Christoph Ohler
9. Human Rights, Labour Standards, and Environmental Standards in CETA 202
Lorand Bartels
10. TTIP, CETA, and TiSA Behind Closed Doors: Transparency in the EU Trade Policy 216
Panagiotis Delimatsis

11. CETA, TTIP, TiSA, and Their Relationship with EU Law 246
Stefan Mayr

PART III. CETA, TTIP, AND TISA: NEW CHALLENGES
 FOR POLITICS, LAW, AND LEGITIMACY?

12. On the Expected Economic Effects of Trade Liberalization and the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership 281
Christoph Moser
13. The Struggle for and against Globalization: International Trade
 Agreements and the Democratic Question 286
Sonja Puntscher Riekmann
14. Three Salient Issues of the New Comprehensive Free Trade Agreements 295
Stefan Griller
15. A New Generation of Trade Agreements: An Opportunity Not to Be Missed? 307
Verena Madner
16. Conclusions 314
Stefan Griller, Walter Obwexer, and Erich Vranes

- Index* 325