

CONTENTS

Introduction	3
--------------	---

ANTHROPONYMY

Chapter 1 : Xhosa onomastics as part of Indigenous Knowledge Systems (IKS)	7
Chapter 2: Innovative anthroponymy: the case of the South African Coloured ¹ community	21
Chapter 3: The right to a good name: Muslim and Xhosa children	34
Chapter 4: Exploring Xhosa surnames	49
Chapter 5: Bynames as an expression of identity: A student profile at the University of the Western Cape	65

TOPONYMY

Chapter 6: Street names: A changing urban landscape	83
Chapter 7: Political aspiration: The possible renaming of Western Cape towns in South Africa	104
Chapter 8: The contested etymology of Devil's Peak/Duiwelspiek along Table Mountain	121

NAMES IN THE ECONOMY

Chapter 9: The role of anthroponymic commemoration on wine labels in South Africa	134
Chapter 10: A drink at Kwamaliyam? Names of informal businesses in the Cape Peninsula	149
Chapter 11: Brand names on the move: South African Supersport rugby sponsors	161
Chapter 12: A minibus taxi by any other name, would it run as sweet?	174

LITERARY ONOMASTICS

Chapter 13: A comparative analysis of names in songs: Billy Joel's ' We didn't start the fire ' and Christopher Torr's ' Hot Gates '.	186
---	-----

NAMES OF SHIPS

Chapter 14: Naming and renaming of South African warships	216
Chapter 15: An onomastic journey on board MSC cruise ships	233

NAMING OF ANIMALS

Chapter 16: The naming of primates by primates: a case study of the Cape Peninsula Baboons in South Africa	250
Chapter 17: The naming of Panthera: A human prerogative	262