

Contents

Editorial

- Extraordinary public financial support for banks is not so extraordinary after all 343
Phedon Nicolaides

Articles

- Islamic headscarves and the CJEU: Achbita and Bougnaoui 348
Erica Howard

- Scenarios for Brexit and social security 367
Herwig Verschueren

- Brexit and EU private international law: May the UK stay in? 382
Mateusz Pilich

- The legal consequences of sovereign insolvency – a review of creditor litigation 399
in Germany following the Greek debt restructuring
Sebastian Grund

Case notes

- A tale of two approaches to Social Europe: The CJEU and the Advocate General drifting 424
apart in Case C-201/15 AGET Iraklis: Case C-201/15 AGET Iraklis, EU:C:2016:972
Konstantinos Alexandris Polomarkakis

- At last! Reaching the remedy for delay after a long ride through the EU judicial system: 438
Case T-577/14 Gascogne Sack Deutschland and Gascogne v. European Union, EU:T:2017:1
Michal Ovádek

- Pure financial loss and international jurisdiction for tort under the Brussels I (Recast) 448
Regulation: Case C-375/13 Harald Kolassa v. Barclays Bank plc, EU:C:2015:37 and Case
C-12/15 Universal Music International Holding v. Michael Tétéreault Schilling (and others),
EU:C:2016:449
Johannes Ungerer