

Contents

Tables, Figures and Images	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Sources	ix
Preface	xiii
Introduction	1
1 Finding the language	6
Twittering away	8
The six functions of language	10
Axes of combination	16
Creativity	19
Conclusion	22
2 The language of law	23
Up close and odd	23
Saying it twice	24
The sign	26
Compounding the complexity	29
Laying it out	32
Putting it together	32
Searching for clarity	37
Conclusion	39
3 Don't do it!	40
Read this!	40
Doing things with words: speech acts	44
Happy yet?	48
Did you mean it?	50
Is that a promise or a threat?	52
More than words	55
What is it?	56
Conclusion	57

4	That's not what I meant!	58
	Not wanting to say	61
	Presupposition	62
	A meeting with the law	64
	Is silence golden?	68
	When a question is not a question	71
	Conclusion	74
5	The trials of language	76
	Stating and statements	76
	The courtroom context	80
	Examining examination	84
	The counter argument	86
	Who is speaking to whom?	92
	Conclusion	93
6	Different language different rules	95
	Not the standard variety	95
	Aboriginal English	97
	More than one silence	100
	Moving between languages	102
	Details, details	106
	Which language?	109
	Where are you from?	112
	Conclusion	113
7	The CSI effect?	115
	Three ways to find a speaker	116
	It's my word!	117
	Making it clear	118
	Listening, looking and measuring	120
	Fingerprinting a voice?	122
	Painting a picture	123
	Lining them up	126
	Too clever for court	129
	One solution	130
	Did you hear what he said?	131
	Conclusion	133

8	The pen is mighty	134
	Put it in writing	135
	The trouble with 'the'	136
	Do you really remember?	140
	A particular hand?	142
	Keeping it short	143
	Missing	144
	Lying? Can we tell?	146
	Conclusion	148
9	Once upon a time	149
	It's not what you say ...	149
	Narratives in pieces	152
	The instructive narrative	156
	Judgement as story	161
	Story in and of the trial	164
	Conclusion	165
10	Signs in time and space	166
	Heed the octagon!	167
	The letters tell a story	171
	Not a normal sign	173
	Careful!	175
	'I am a real sign'	177
	Spoken signs	179
	Conclusion	184
	Coda	186
	References	187
	Index	203