

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|----|
| Abbreviations | ix |
| Introduction: Worms and Water Pumps | 1 |
| How can you do the most good? | |
| 1. You Are the 1% | 19 |
| Just how much can you achieve? | |

Part I The Five Key Questions of Effective Altruism

| | |
|---|----|
| 2. Hard Trade-offs | 33 |
| Key question 1: How many people benefit, and by how much? | |
| 3. How You Can Save Hundreds of Lives | 51 |
| Key question 2: Is this the most effective thing you can do? | |
| 4. Why You Shouldn't Donate to Disaster Relief ... | 65 |
| Key question 3: Is this area neglected? | |
| 5. The Best Person Who Ever Lived is an | 80 |
| Unknown Ukrainian Man | |
| Key question 4: What would have happened otherwise? | |

6. Why Voting Is Like Donating Thousands96
of Dollars to Charity
Key question 5: What are the chances of success, and how good would success be?

Part II Effective Altruism in Action

7. Overhead Costs, CEO Pay and Other125
Confusions
Which charities make the most difference?
8. The Moral Case for Sweatshop Goods158
How can consumers make the most difference?
9. Don't 'Follow Your Passion'181
Which careers make the most difference?
10. Poverty vs Climate Change vs222
Which cause should you focus on?
- Conclusion: Becoming an Effective Altruist243
What should you do right now?
- Appendix: Summary248
Thinking like an effective altruist
- Acknowledgements253
- Notes255
- Selected sources and resources303
- Index315