

Brief Contents

About the Author		ix
Acknowledgments		x
Preface		xv
Introduction		xvii
Chapter 1	Magic, Spels and Gramarye	1
Chapter 2	The Twenty-First-Century Australian Context: Educating Rita—and Mehmet and Alinga and Chinh and ...	19
Chapter 3	Creative Organic Pedagogies and Deep Literacy	41
Chapter 4	The Centrality of Story	78
Chapter 5	Interrelationships: Language, Literacy, Literature	95
Chapter 6	Narrative Patterns: Narrator, Plot, Characters, Setting and Themes	123
Chapter 7	The World that Creates—and Recreates—the Text	142
Chapter 8	Indigenous Storytelling	160
Chapter 9	Romance and Realism and the Spaces Between: Fantasy and Fairytales, Contemporary and Historical Realism and Social Issues	182
Chapter 10	The Picturebook Genre: Semiotics, Semantics and Style	212
Chapter 11	Cross-curriculum: Australia and Asia—Sharing Stories and Global Citizenship	249
Chapter 12	Towards a Poetics of Australian Children's Literature	270
Epilogue:	Going Forward ... and an Ethics of Hope	316
Appendix:	Talk Story/Listen Story as a Research and Teaching Methodology	320
Index		324