

CONTENTS

|                                                                       |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| INTRODUCTION .....                                                    | 1  |
| (A) The Theological Significance of the Two Topics .....              | 2  |
| (B) Basic Biblical Suppositions .....                                 | 15 |
| (1) Limitations of Old Testament Prophecies....                       | 15 |
| (2) Gospels Written by Second-GenerationChristians .....          | 16 |
| (3) Gradual Growth of the Gospel Content.....                         | 17 |
| (4) Limited Inerrancy .....                                           | 18 |
| CHAPTER ONE: THE PROBLEM OF THE VIRGINALCONCEPTION OF JESUS ..... | 21 |
| I. The State of the Problem .....                                     | 22 |
| II. The Evidence from Authority.....                                  | 31 |
| III. The Evidence from Interlocking Doctrines.....                    | 38 |
| (A) Doctrines That Seemingly Suppose a VirginalConception .....   | 38 |
| (1) The Sanctity of Mary.....                                         | 38 |
| (2) The Sinlessness of Jesus .....                                    | 40 |
| (3) The Divine Sonship of Jesus .....                                 | 41 |
| (B) Doctrines Seemingly Unfavorable to a VirginalConception ..... | 42 |
| (1) The Pre-Existence of the Son of God.....                          | 43 |
| (2) The True Humanity of Jesus .....                                  | 45 |
| IV. The Evidence from Early History.....                              | 47 |
| V. The Evidence from the Scriptures.....                              | 52 |
| (A) Scriptural Arguments Against Historicity.....                     | 53 |
| (1) The "High" Christology Implied .....                              | 53 |
| (2) The Dubious Historicity of theInfancy Material .....          | 53 |
| (3) The Silence of the Rest of theNew Testament .....             | 56 |

|                                                                            |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| (B) Scriptural Arguments Favoring Historicity.....                         | 61  |
| (1) The Origins of the Idea of aVirginal Conception .....              | 61  |
| (2) The Charge of Illegitimacy .....                                       | 65  |
| CHAPTER TWO: THE PROBLEM OF THE BODILYRESURRECTION OF JESUS .....      | 69  |
| I. The State of the Problem .....                                          | 70  |
| II. The Earliest Christian Formulations ofResurrection Faith .....     | 78  |
| (A) The Shorter Formulas .....                                             | 78  |
| (B) The Formula in I Corinthians 15:3-8.....                               | 81  |
| (1) The Sequence of Death, Burial,Resurrection, and Appearance(s)..... | 83  |
| (2) Paul's List of the Recipients of theAppearances .....              | 92  |
| III. The Gospel Narratives of the Appearancesto the Twelve .....       | 96  |
| (A) General Critical Suppositions.....                                     | 97  |
| (B) The Sequence of the Appearances .....                                  | 99  |
| (C) Miscellaneous Considerations about theAppearances .....            | 111 |
| IV. The Gospel Narratives of the Empty Tomb.....                           | 113 |
| (A) Details about the Burial of Jesus.....                                 | 113 |
| (B) The Evolution of the Empty Tomb Narratives..                           | 117 |
| V. Conclusions .....                                                       | 125 |
| EPILOGUE .....                                                             | 131 |
| INDEX OF AUTHORS .....                                                     | 135 |