

Contents

CHAPTER 1. Conceptions of Children and Childhood	1
Historical Perspectives of Childhood	2
Theories of Socialization	4
New Social Studies of Childhood	7
Discussion Questions	17
CHAPTER 2. Negotiating Access for Research with Children	19
The Regulation of Research in the Social Sciences	20
Navigating IRBs	23
Discussion Questions	36
CHAPTER 3. Recruiting Child Participants	37
Strategies for Obtaining Parental Permission	38
Getting Kids to Participate after You Are “In”	42
Confidentiality	48
Discussion Questions	51
CHAPTER 4. Defining Researcher Roles in Research with Children	53
The Effect of Institutions on Researcher Roles	54
Presentation of Self as Researcher	58
Discussion Questions	67
CHAPTER 5. Ethical Challenges in Social Constructivist Research with Children	69
Voluntary Participation	70
Communicating Responsibly	76
Reciprocity	82
Discussion Questions	84

CHAPTER 6. Interviewing	87
Interviewing as a Relationship	90
Developing Interview Questions and Protocols	93
Strategies for Eliciting Verbal Responses	97
Individual Interviews	101
Group Interviews or Focus Groups	102
Discussion Questions	107
CHAPTER 7. Art and Photography	109
Visual Forms of Expression and Representation	109
Communicating through Participant Drawings	111
Communicating through Photographs and Video	122
Communicating through Maps	124
Planning for Visual Activities	126
Planning for Analysis of Visual Data	127
Discussion Questions	128
CHAPTER 8. Journaling and Other Written Responses	131
Communicating through Writing	135
Written Accounts as Data	136
Artifacts	143
Technology and Writing	144
Discussion Questions	145
CHAPTER 9. Analyzing Data	147
Internal and External Narratives of Meaning	148
Analysis of Context, Contexts of Analysis	150
Analyzing Visual Data	156
Analysis Goes On and On	162
Discussion Questions	163
CHAPTER 10. Children as Researchers	165
The Power of Children's Voices	166
Why Partner with Young People?	169
The Possibility of True Partnerships	172
Discussion Questions	175
 References	 177
 Index	 191
 About the Authors	 196