

Contents

List of Boxes, Figures and Tables	ix
Foreword: the Whitehall Programme by Ben Pimlott	x
Editor's Preface and Acknowledgements	xii
Notes on the Contributors	xv
1 Introduction: The ESRC Whitehall Programme: a Guide to Institutional Change R. A. W. Rhodes Appendix: Programme Publications, 1994–2000	1 14
Part I: Context	23
2 Prime Ministers, Ministers and Civil Servants in the Core Executive Martin J. Smith	25
3 The Europeanisation of British Central Government Simon Bulmer and Martin Burch	46
4 Internal Control in the Executive and its Constitutional Significance Alan Page and Terence Daintith	63
5 Bureaucratic Gamekeeping: Regulation of UK Public Administration, 1976–96 Christopher Hood, Oliver James, George Jones, Colin Scott and Tony Travers	80
Part II: The World We Knew	97
6 Modernising Britain, 1957–64: a Classic Case of Centralisation and Fragmentation? Rodney Lowe and Neil Rollings	99
7 Domesticating the 'Market Animal'? The Treasury and the Bank of England 1955–60 Astrid Ringe and Neil Rollings	119
8 The Organisation of Central Government Departments: a History, 1964–92 Iain McLean, Chris Clifford and Alistair McMillan	135

9	The Development and Role of Cabinet Committees in Britain Peter Catterall and Christopher Brady	156
10	The Evolving Prime Minister's Office: 1868–1997 June Burnham and G. W. Jones	176
Part III: Agencies
11	Agencies and Accountability Brian W. Hogwood, David Judge and Murray McVicar	195
12	Accountability and Control in Next Steps Agencies Neil C. M. Elder and Edward C. Page	223
13	The Politics of Managing the National Health Service Patricia Day and Rudolf Klein	238
14	Conclusion: Interpreting British Government: the Governance Narrative R. A. W. Rhodes	254
	Bibliography	267
	Name Index	284
	Subject Index	289