

Contents

List of Tables	vii
List of Abbreviations	viii
List of Contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Preface	xiii
Introduction: The New Natural Law Theory Rufus Black	1
Part I: Philosophical Issues
1 Natural Law Revived: Natural Law Theory and Contemporary Moral Philosophy Timothy Chappell	29
2 Grisez and Thomism Ralph McInerny	53
3 The Basic Dimensions of Human Flourishing: A Comparison of Accounts Sabina Alkire	73
4 John Finnis on Moral Absolutes Oliver O'Donovan	111
Part II: Theological Dimensions
5 Is Grisez's Moral Theology Rationalistic? Free Choice, the Human Condition, and Christian Ethics Göran Bexell	131

6	Is the New Natural Law Theory Christian? Rufus Black	148
7	Karl Barth and Germain Grisez on the Human Good: An Ecumenical Rapprochement Nigel Biggar	164
8	Grisez's Ecclesiology, the Role of Moral Theologians, and the Scope for Responsible Dissent Bernard Hoose	184

Part III: Moral Fields

9	Respect for Life in Germain Grisez's Moral Theology Dave Leal	203
10	Natural Sex: Germain Grisez, Sex, and Natural Law Gareth Moore, O.P.	223
11	Grisez on Sex and Gender: A Feminist Theological Perspective Lisa Sowle Cahill	242
12	The Moral Standing of Nature and the New Natural Law Michael Northcott	262

	Conclusion Nigel Biggar	283
--	-----------------------------------	-----

	Index	295
--	--------------	-----