

Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Introduction	1
Part One: Framework for listening	5
Part Two: The Mosaic approach	11
Stage One: Children and adults gathering documentation	12
Pieces of the Mosaic	12
Observation	12
Child conferencing	15
Cameras	20
Tours	27
Mapping	28
Role play	31
Parents' perspectives	32
Practitioners' perspectives	34
Researcher's perspectives	35
Stage Two: Piecing together information for dialogue, reflection and interpretation	37
Bringing the Mosaic together	37
Pre-verbal children
Case Study 1: Toni (age 22 months)	38
Children with speech	41
Case Study 2: Gary (age 3)	41
Case Study 3: Gaby (age 3)	44
Reflection into practice	48
Recognising the unexpected	48
Mosaic approach with refugee children	50
Summary	54

Part Three: Challenges of listening

Possibilities of listening

Pitfalls of listening

Conditions for listening

Summary

Appendix: Listening in different settings

References

Index

57

58

61

63

67

69

73

77