

CONTENTS

Foreword	xi
Preface and acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	1

Part I: Deconstructing leadership

1	Unravelling leadership in the early childhood sector	11
	Defining the challenge of leadership	11
	Differences between leadership and management	19
	Leadership in early childhood	22
	Why does leadership work in some situations and not others?	26
	Bringing it together	27
2	The personal qualities of leaders in early childhood	28
	Attributes associated with leaders	28
	The influence of personal qualities on followers	33
	The role of gender stereotypes	34
	Who follows the leader?	36
	Who is a leader in early childhood services?	38
	Who becomes a leader in early childhood?	40
	Bringing it together	43
3	Theories, models and styles of leadership	45
	Theories of leadership	46
	Models of leadership	50
	Styles of leadership	57
	Bringing it together	59

Part II: Leadership in practice

4	Leading through communication: Meeting others' needs	63
	Emotional intelligence and leadership	67
	Communication skills for effective leadership	68
	Skills for meeting others' needs	70

	Communication in culturally diverse contexts	75
	Bringing it together	77
5	Leading through communication: Meeting personal needs	78
	Appropriate self-assertion	81
	'I' messages	85
	Conflict resolution	85
	Delegation	86
	Time management	89
	Stress management	92
	Information technology and electronic communication	98
	Bringing it together	101
6	Leading conflict resolution: From discord to accord	102
	Sources of conflict within early childhood services	104
	Common responses to discord	118
	Constructive approaches to addressing conflict	120
	Mediation: From discord to accord	124
	Bringing it together	125
7	Leading decision-making: Transforming vision into action	126
	Transforming vision into action through decision-making	127
	Thinking styles for leadership decisions	131
	Types of leadership decisions	133
	Methods of decision-making	136
	Professional ethics and decision-making	141
	Guidelines for leading decision-making	142
	Problem-solving	143
	Bringing it together	143
8	Leading collaboratively: Cultivating collective responsibility	144
	Collaborating to achieve quality	145
	Working as a collaborative team in a service	147
	Working in multi-disciplinary teams	149
	Working in multi-agency services	150
	Benefits of professional diversity in teams	151

Processes and stages of team development	152
Collaborative leadership and collective responsibility	160
A framework for team-building	162
Recruiting and selecting team members	163
Bringing it together	165
9 Leading professional development: Supervision, mentoring and coaching	166
The leader as a supervisor	167
Supervising educators as adult learners	170
The leader as a mentor	173
The leader as a coach	175
The deputy: A special opportunity for leadership	178
Bringing it together	181
10 Leading in changing times	182
Types of change	186
Change and the individual	188
Sources of resistance to change	189
Converting resistance into commitment	190
Preparing to implement change	193
Coping with change	194
Leading change	195
Features of successful change	197
Bringing it together	198
 Part III: Special responsibilities of early childhood leaders
11 Leading research: Moving quality forward	201
Research and its benefits for early childhood	203
Attitudes to research in early childhood	208
Encouraging a research culture	210
Action research for critical inquiry	213
Reflective practice	217
Bringing it together	218

12 Leading partnerships: Engaging families and communities	219
Engaging families in partnership	221
Engaging families in early childhood services	223
The challenge of engaging families	227
Advocacy: Engaging communities with the early childhood sector	229
Participation in professional associations	232
Networking	233
Research and writing	235
Becoming politically aware and active	237
Bringing it together	239
13 Leading ethical practice	240
Morality and ethics in leadership	240
Leading ethical practice in early childhood services	243
Promoting and protecting children's rights	244
Ensuring quality services that affirm children's rights	246
Ethical administration of early childhood services	247
The code of ethics and courageous ethical choices	250
Bringing it together	253
14 Leading for succession: Building leadership capacity	255
Professional preparation for building capacity	257
Approaches to building leadership capacity	259
Distributed leadership for building capacity	262
Planning for succession	264
Bringing it together	266
15 Postscript: An aide-memoire for aspiring leaders in early childhood	267
References	269
Author index	277
Subject index	279