

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements iii

Preface v

PART ONE Spa Foundations 1

1 Spa from Past to Present 2

A Brief History of Spas 3

European Spas in the 18th and 19th Centuries 3

The Modern European Spa 4

Spa in the United States 5

Basic Spa Categories 6

Destination Spas 6

Resort Spas 6

Amenity Spas 7

Medical Spas 7

Day Spas 8

Hot Spring Spas 8

Mobile Spas 8

The Spa Client 9

Spas for Women 9

Spas for Men 9

Spas for Families 10

Programs for Teens 10

Spa into the Future 10

2 Spa Equipment and Products 13

Dry Room Equipment 14

Massage Tables 15

Basic Linens 17

Hot Towel Heating Units 17

Product Warmers 18

Paraffin Warmers 18

Body Wrap Materials 18

Body-Warming Equipment 18

Spa Clothing 19

Other Dry Room Supplies 19

Wet Room Equipment 19

Tubs 19

Showers 20

Specialized Environments 22

Purchasing and Maintaining Equipment 23

Spa Products 23

Cleansers 23

Toners and Astringents 23

Exfoliation Products 23

Treatment Products 24

Moisturizers 24

Important Product Terms 24

Product Exploration 25

Your Spa Environment 25

What the Client Sees—Décor 25

What the Client Hears 28

What the Client Smells 28

What the Client Tastes 29

What the Client Feels 29

Accessibility and Functionality 29

Planning Spa Treatment Rooms 29

3 Client and Therapist Safety 32

Spa Ethics 33

Commitment to Personal and Professional Boundaries 33

Scope of Practice 35

Spa Sanitation and Hygiene 37

Diseases 37

How Diseases Are Transmitted 39

Preventing the Transmission of Disease 40

Sanitation of the Facility, Equipment, and Supplies 43

Universal Precautions 46

Creating a Safe Environment 48

Safety of the Facility 48

Safety of the Client 48

Safety of the Therapist 49

Cautions and Contraindications 50

Spa-Specific Considerations 56

Common Conditions That Require Caution 56

Critical Thinking and Contraindications 61

Documentation of Sessions in a Spa 62

4 Your Spa Massage 68

Overview of a Wellness Massage Session 69

Before the Massage 69

The Massage 72

After the Massage 73

Opening and Closing the Massage 73

Resting and Holding Strokes 74

Breathwork 74

Aromatherapy Inhalations 78

Use of an Auditory Cue 78

Massage Enhancers 78

Warm Packs 79

Steamy Aromatic Towels 79

A Simple Hand or Foot Treatment 80

Paraffin Dip 81

Easy Aromatherapy Enhancements 81

Putting Your Spa Massage Together 82

Sequencing 82

Routines 84

Subtle Factors That Influence the Massage 85

5 Foundation Skills for Spa Treatment Delivery 96

Spa Draping 97

Posterior Leg 97

Anterior Leg 97

Breast Drape 97

Anterior Pelvic Drape 97

Turban Drape 97

Gluteal Drape 97

Simple Hair Drape 97

Side-Lying Drape 97

Positioning the Client When ApplyingSpa Products 100The Side-Lying Position 101The Sit-Up Method 101The Flip-Over Method 101Basic Application Techniques 101Application by Hand 101Application with One Hand Gloved 101Application by Brush 101Application with Gauze or Fabric 101Application by Mist 101Application of Product with a Sugar Shaker 101Dry Room Removal Techniques 103Steamy Rosemary Towels 104Herbal-Infused Towels 104Hot Towel Removal—Legs 104Hot Towel Removal—Feet 104Hot Towel Removal—Back 104Hot Towel Removal—Arms 105Hot Towel Removal—Abdominal Area and Upper Chest 105Other Dry Room Removal Techniques 105Moving a Client from Plastic to a Preset
Massage Sheet 105Wet Room Removal Techniques 105The Handheld Shower 105The Standard Shower 105The Swiss Shower 106The Vichy Shower 1076 Water Therapies 110*General Uses for Hydrotherapy 111*Introduction to Hydrotherapy 111Therapeutic Characteristics of Water 112Hydrotherapy Benefits and Effects 113Benefits of Using Hydrotherapy in a Massage and Spa Practice 113Effects of Hydrotherapy Applications 113Hydrotherapy Applications 117General Treatment Considerations 117Hydrotherapy Applications 1207 Introduction to Aromatherapy for Spa 129*Aromatherapy—An Art and Science 130*Essential Oils 131Safety Considerations 134Pathways In and Out of the Body 137The Physiological and Psychological Effects of*Essential Oils 137Physiological Effects 137Psychological Effects 142Blending Essential Oils 143Carrier Products 143Essential Oil Concentrations 145Synergy 145Top, Middle, and Base Note Blending 146Approach to Blending 146Application Methods 148Inhalations 149Aromatic Exfoliations and Body Shampoos 149Aromatherapy Massage 149Aromatherapy Baths 150Aromatherapy Wraps 150Aroma Mists and Aura Mists 151Support Lotions 151PART TWO Spa Treatments 154*8 Exfoliation Treatments 155*Types of Exfoliation Treatments 156*General Treatment Considerations 156Scope of Practice 156Skin Conditions 156Overexfoliation 156Dry Skin Brushing 156Dry Skin Brushing Techniques 157The Enhanced Dry Skin Brushing Procedure 158The Salt or Sugar Glow 160The Salt or Sugar Glow Procedure 162The Full-Body Polish 165The Full-Body Polish Procedure 165The Body or Loofah Scrub 167*The Buff and Bronze 167The Buff and Bronze Procedure 168Home Care and Retail 1719 Body Wraps 173*General Treatment Considerations 174Contraindications 175Healing Crisis 175Allergies or Sensitive Skin 175Modesty 175When the Wrap Goes Wrong 175Claustrophobia 175Wrapping Materials 176The Hot Sheet Wrap 176Hot Sheet Wrap Types 176The Hot Sheet Wrap Procedure 177The Cocoon 181Cocoon Types 182The Cocoon Procedure 186Tension Wraps 189Techniques for Tension Wrapping 18910 Spa Foot Treatments 194*General Treatment Considerations 195Contraindications 195Reflexology Certification 195Possible Reactions to Reflexology 195Therapist and Client Comfort during Reflexology 195Elements of a Spa Foot Treatment 196A Quick Foot Assessment 196Soaking and Cleansing the Feet 197Exfoliation 197Foot Massage 199Reflexology 203Treatment Products 208Finishing Products 211*

A Sample Foot Treatment Procedure 211

- Session Start 211
- Step 1: Soak and Cleanse 211
- Step 2: Exfoliation 211
- Step 3: Move the Client to the Treatment Table 211
- Step 4: Foot Massage 212
- Step 5: Reflexology 212
- Step 6: Application of a Treatment Product 212
- Step 7: Process 212
- Step 8: Removal of the Treatment Product 212
- Session End 213

11 Fangotherapy 215Fangotherapy in Europe 216*Fangotherapy in the United States 217*Types of Products Used in Fangotherapy 217

- Clay 217
- Mud 219
- Peat 220

General Treatment Considerations 220

- Contraindicated Individuals 220
- Broken or Inflamed Skin 220
- Fango Temperature 221
- Mixing and Storing Fango Products 221
- Preventing Dry Out 221

The Full-Body Fango Cocoon 221The Fango Back Treatment Procedure 222

- Session Start 222
- Step 1: Steam the Back with Hot, Moist Towels 223
- Step 2: Cleanse the Back 223
- Step 3: Exfoliate the Back 224
- Step 4: Massage the Back 224
- Step 5: Application of Warm Fango 224
- Step 6: Process—Massage the Legs and Feet 224
- Step 7: Remove the Fango 224
- Step 8: Application of a Finishing Product 224
- Session End 224

The Fango Scalp and Neck TreatmentProcedure 225

- Session Start 227
- Step 1: Steam the Head and Face 227
- Step 2: Massage the Neck 227
- Step 3: Massage the Scalp 227
- Step 4: Application of Warm Fango to the Head 227
- Step 5: Process—Massage the Feet and Hands 227
- Step 6: Remove the Fango from the Hair 227
- Step 7: Face Massage 227
- Session End 228

Fango Applications for Musculoskeletal Injury and Disorder 228

- Acute Conditions 228
- Subacute Conditions 230
- Chronic Conditions 230

12 Thalassotherapy 232A Brief History of Thalassotherapy 233*The Therapeutic Benefits of Seaweed for the Body 233*General Treatment Considerations 235

- Contraindications 235
- Sensitive Skin 236
- Product Form and Application Considerations 236

Seaweed Odor 237

Cellulite and Cellulite Products 238

The Slimming Seaweed Cocoon Procedure 238

- Session Start 238
- Step 1: Exfoliation of the Posterior Body 238
- Step 2: Application of a Cellulite Cream to Target Areas of the Posterior Body 239
- Step 3: Exfoliation and Cellulite Cream Application on the Anterior Body 239
- Step 4: Application of Seaweed 239
- Step 5: Cocoon 239
- Step 6: Process—Massage the Face and/or Feet 240
- Step 7: Unwrap 240
- Step 8: Application of Firming Products 241
- Session End 241

The Seaweed Breast Treatment 241Other Seaweed Treatments 242*13 Stone Massage 247*General Treatment Considerations 249

- Contraindications 249
- Stone Temperatures 249
- Therapist Safety 249
- Draping and Insulation for Placement Stones 249
- Essential Oils 249

Equipment and Setup 250

- Stones 250
- Heating Units 250
- Equipment Organization 251

Core Techniques 251

- Introduction of the Stones to the Client's Body 251
- Stone Flipping 251
- Stone Transitions 252
- Bad Stone Body Mechanics 252
- Heating Unit Speed versus Body Speed 252
- Remove Enough Stones 252
- Draping 252
- Stones on the Face 252

Basic Strokes 253

- Long Strokes with the Stone Flat 254
- Stone Pêtrissage 254
- Wringing with Stones 255
- Stone Stripping 255
- Rotation of a Stone with Compression 255
- Stone Vibration 255
- Deep Tissue with the Edge of a Stone 255
- Deep Tissue with the Flat of the Stone 255
- Friction with Stones 255
- Stone Tapotement 255
- Vascular Flush with Stones 255

Stone Strokes for Specific Areas 255

- Posterior Leg: Gastrocnemius and Soleus Pin and Stretch 255
- Posterior Leg: Hamstring Pin and Stretch 255
- Posterior Leg: Double-Arm Deep Tissue Stroke 259
- The Back: Stoning the Lamina Groove 259
- The Back: Latissimus Pin and Stretch 259
- Anterior Leg 259
- Anterior Leg: Quadriceps Pin and Stretch 259
- Anterior Leg: Tensor Fasciae Latae and Iliotibial Tract Stretch with Stones 259
- Arm: The Triceps 259
- Arm: Flexor or Extensor Pin and Stretch 259

Hands	259
The Neck: Prone	259
The Neck: Supine	259
A Basic Full-Body Stone Massage Procedure	260
Session Start	260
Step 1: Posterior Placement	260
Step 2: Massage the Posterior Legs	261
Step 3: Massage the Back	261
Step 4: Transition to the Supine Position	262
Step 5: Anterior Placement	262
Step 6: Massage the Anterior Legs	262
Step 7: Foot Massage	262
Step 8: Abdominal Massage (Optional)	262
Step 9: Arm and Hand Massage	262
Step 10: Neck Massage	263
Step 11: Face Massage	263
Session End	263

14 Culturally Based Spa Treatments 265

Ayurvedic-Inspired Spa Treatments 266

Core Concepts in Ayurveda	266
General Treatment Considerations	273
Indian Head Massage	281
Abhyanga	286
Udvaratana	293
Shirodhara	295

Indonesian-Inspired Spa Treatments 297

Indonesian Spa Products	297
Treatment Considerations	298
Indonesian-Inspired Massage	299
Indonesian-Inspired Exfoliation and Body Wrap Treatments	308
Balinese Boreh-Inspired Treatment	310
Javanese Lulur Ritual	310

PART THREE Your Spa Career 316

15 Treatment Design and Your Signature Spa Treatment 317

Individual Treatment Design 318

The Therapeutic Goal	319
Finding Inspiration through a Treatment Concept	319
Treatment Texture	320
Enhancing Treatments	324
Transitions	324
Product Planning	325
Client Management	325
Retail Sales as Part of the Treatment	326
Treatment Planning Forms	326
Considerations When Pricing Services	330
The Signature Spa Treatment	330

16 Your Spa Program and Menu of Services 334

Benefits and Drawbacks of Spa Body Treatments 335

Your Spa Philosophy 336

Your Life Mission 336

Creating Your Spa Program 340

Choosing Spa Treatments for Your Program 340

Balance Your Spa Program 343

Review Other Spa Programs 343

Design Individual Treatments 346

Write Detailed Treatment Guides 348

Refine Your Treatments 348

Your Spa Menu 348

Design 348

Writing Style 348

Essential Contents 351

17 You in the Spa Profession 353

Your Career Plan 354

Self-assessment for Career Planning 354

Explore Your Options 354

Have a Plan—It Can Change 360

Activities for Further Exploration 360

Plan to Thrive 360

Write Your Career Plan 361

Work as an Employee 363

Identify and Research Potential Spa Employers 363

Write a Resume 363

Write a Cover Letter 364

Interviewing 364

Negotiating the Employment Package 367

Meeting and Exceeding the Employers Expectations 368

Starting a Private Practice 369

Your Business Plan 369

APPENDICES

Appendix A. Sample Spa Treatments 386

Appendix B. Essential Oils and Their Botanical Names 407

Appendix C. Resources 409

Appendix D. Ready-to-Copy Forms 411

Appendix E. Answers to Chapter Review Questions 420

Glossary 421

References 426

Index 431