

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Section One: Introduction	xi
Chapter 1: The Three-Block Model of Universal Design for Learning	1
Chapter 2: What We Mean by “Inclusive”	9
Social Inclusion and Social Exclusion	11
Social Inclusion of Students with Exceptionalities	11
Social Inclusion of FNMI Students	12
Academic Inclusion and Academic Exclusion	15
Canada and UNESCO’s Goal of Education for All	16
Interactive Inclusion	17
Section Two: Resource Teacher as Educational Leader and Collaborator	19
Chapter 3: Response to Intervention in Universal Design for Learning	21
A Tiered System of Interventions	22
RTI Tier 1	22
RTI Tier 2	23
RTI Tier 3	24
Role of the Resource Teacher in RTI	24
Chapter 4: Tier 1 — Supporting Inclusive Instructional Practice	27
Disability and Disabling Environments	28
Collaborative Practice	29
Co-Teaching	31
Working with Educational Assistants	33
Chapter 5: Ecobehavioural Assessment in Tier 1 and Tier 2	35
Universal Design for Learning	36
Mental Models: Assessment Frameworks	39
Multiple Intelligences	40
Neurodevelopmental Constructs	40
Ecobehavioural Assessment in a UDL Context	48
Section Three: Individualized Assessment for Tier 2 and Tier 3 Supports	55
Chapter 6: Types of Individual Assessment in Tier 2 and Tier 3	57
Categories of Funding Models	57
Types of Assessment	58
Three Levels of Assessment	58
Assessments for Education Grouped into Four Subtypes	60
How Test Scores Are Measured and Reported	61
Blending the Traditional and RTI Models	62