

Contents

1. Judicialization and Arbitral Governance	1
I. Orientations	7
II. Theory of Judicialization	11
III. Logics of Delegation	22
IV. The Institutional Evolution of International Arbitration	33
2. The Evolution of the Arbitral Order	35
I. Islands of Transnational Governance	35
II. Architectures of Authority	52
III. Investor-State Arbitration	66
IV. Conclusion	78
3. Procedures and Hierarchy	80
I. Procedural Codes and Arbitral Authority	80
II. Evolution	84
III. Dynamics of Institutional Change	107
IV. Conclusion	115
4. Precedent and Appeal	119
I. Paths to Precedent	121
II. Precedent and Lawmaking in International Commercial Arbitration	139
III. Precedent and Lawmaking in Investor-State Arbitration	151
IV. Conclusion	168
5. Balancing and the Public Interest	171
I. Orientations	171
II. International Commercial Arbitration and Mandatory Domestic Law	172
III. Balancing and the Public Interest in Investor-State Arbitration	186
IV. Conclusion	217
6. Legitimacy and Reform	218
I. Functional Dynamics	219
II. Whither Hierarchy?	223
III. Arbitral Governance and Reform	238
IV. Conclusion	252
Index	253