

Contents

List of illustrations	xi
List of contributors	xii

Introduction: Addressing the emerging gap between concepts, doctrine, and practice in UN peacekeeping operations	1
CHIYUKI AOI, CEDRIC DE CONING AND JOHN KARLSRUD

PART I

Doctrinal Debates	31
1 US military doctrine and the challenges of peace operations	33
WILLIAM FLAVIN AND CHIYUKI AOI
2 The United Kingdom and UN peacekeeping	68
DAVID CURRAN AND PAUL D. WILLIAMS
3 France and the evolution of the UN peacekeeping doctrine	90
ALEXANDRA NOVOSSELOFF AND THIERRY TARDY
4 China's doctrine on UN peacekeeping	109
HE YIN
5 The Russian perspective on UN peacekeeping: Today and tomorrow	132
MAXIM BRATERSKY AND ALEXANDER LUKIN
6 The large contributors and UN peacekeeping doctrine	152
SEUN ABIOLA, CEDRIC DE CONING, EDUARDA HAMANN AND CHANDER PRAKASH

PART II

UN Peacekeeping Practice

- 7 UN support in the formation of new states: South Sudan,
Kosovo, and Timor-Leste 187
DIANA FELIX DA COSTA AND MATEJA PETER
- 8 Protection of civilians in the absence of peace agreements:
Darfur, Chad/CAR, and Côte d'Ivoire 211
JOHN KARLSRUD AND INGVILD MAGNÆS GJELSVIK
- 9 Protecting governments from insurgencies: The Democratic Republic of the Congo and Mali 227
STIAN KJEKSRUD AND LOTTE VERMEIJ

PART III

Emerging Issues

- 10 Exploiting the water: Naval involvement in UN peacekeeping—prospects and difficulties 249
IAN BOWERS
- 11 New technologies and UN peacekeeping operations 271
JOHN KARLSRUD
- 12 Conclusion: Towards a United Nations stabilization doctrine—stabilization as an emerging UN practice 289
CHIYUKI AOI AND CEDRIC DE CONING

Index

Routledge Global Institutions Series