

---

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	viii
Abbreviations	x
Introduction	1
1 Law before communism: modernity and the authoritarian drive	15
2 A criticism of the heaven: class struggle and the law in theory and practise	46
3 Revolution under siege: law, violence and Marxist legal theory	72
4 Revolution betrayed: the great retreat and the enduring legal canon	97
5 The discourse of the master: war, law and the communist takeover	121
6 Law as state truth: the law-preserving violence and the limits of communism	151
7 Exit communism: legal amnesia and the return of the repressed	176
Conclusion	199
Bibliography	208
Index	227