

Contents

Introduction

ix

Part One • Asia and the Pacific

(Asia, Australia, Indian Subcontinent, Pacific)

Afghanistan: red light at the crossroads Veronica Doubleday	3
Australia – Aboriginal music: the original songlines Marcus Breen	8
Cambodia: heavenly dancers John Clewley	20
Central Asian Republics: bards of the golden road Razia Sultanova and Simon Broughton	24
China – Han/Traditional: the east is red ... and white Stephen Jones	33
China – Minorities' Music: sounds of the frontiers Helen Rees	44
China – Pop/Rock: cantopop and protest singers Joanna Lee	49
Hawaii: steel and slide hula baloos Mike Cooper	56
India – Classical: how to listen – a routemap Robert Maycock and Ken Hunt	63
India – Hindustani Instrumental Music: ragas and riches Ken Hunt	70
India – Karnatic Instrumental Music: sounds of the saints Ken Hunt	79
India – Vocal Music: the sacred and the profane Ken Hunt	86
India – Folk and Adivasi Music: everything is left behind Ken Hunt and Simon Broughton	94
India – Film Music: soundtrack to a billion lives Ken Hunt	102

India – East/West Fusion: meetings by the river Ken Hunt	109
Indonesia – Gamelan: a storm of bronze Jenny Heaton and Simon Steptoe	117
Indonesia – Pop and Folk: no risk – no fun! Colin Bass	131
Japan: the culture-blender John Clewley	143
Korea: our life is precisely a song Rob Provine, Okon Hwang and Andy Kershaw	160
Laos: beyond our khaen John Clewley	170
Malaysia: music at the crossroads Heidi Munan	175
Melanesia: bamboo boogie-woogie Stephen Feld	183
Mongolia/Tuva: sixty horses in my herd Carole Pegg	189
Nepal: the hills are alive Carol Tingey	198
Pakistan/North India – Qawwali/Folk: songs of praise Jameela Siddiqi and Peter Culshaw	203
The Philippines: pinoy rockers John Clewley	213
Polynesia: the real music of paradise Ad Linkels	218
Sri Lanka: sounds of serendipity Lalith Ganhewa	230
Taiwan: from innocence to funny rap Wang Ying-fen	235
Thailand: songs for living John Clewley	241
Tibet: raising the roof Mark Trewin	254
Vietnam: ancient rock music Philip Blackburn	262

Part Two • The Americas

(Latin America, North America, Caribbean)

Andean Music: beyond the ponchos Jan Fairley	273
Antilles – Zouk: dance-funk, creole-style Charles de Ledesma and Gene Scaramuzzo	289
Argentina – Tango: vertical expression of horizontal desire Teddy Peiro and Jan Fairley	304
Argentina – Chamamé, Cuarteto and Folk: dancing cheek to cheek Jan Fairley	315

The Bahamas: junkanoo and sloop john. b	Jeff Kaliss	317
Belize: drum'n'flute legacies	Ronnie Graham	325
Brazil: meu brasil brasileiro	David Cleary	332
Canada: no more solitudes	Charles Foran	350
Chile/Latin America – Nueva canción: an uncompromising song	Jan Fairley	362
Colombia: el sonido dorado	Kim Burton	372
Cuba – Son & Afro-Cuban music: ¡que rico baila yo!	Jan Fairley	386
Cuba – Trova & Nueva trova: troubadours old and new	Jan Fairley	408
Dominican Republic: merengue attacks	Sean Harvey and Sue Steward	414
Haiti: compas points	Sue Steward and Sean Harvey	421
Jamaica: the loudest island in the world	Gregory Mthembu-Salter and Peter Dalton	430
Jamaica-UK: lovers and poets – babylon sounds	Gregory Mthembu-Salter and Peter Dalton	457
Mexico: much more than mariachi	Mary Farquharson	463
Panama: dancing between the oceans	Nigel Gallop and Robin Broadbank	477
Puerto Rico: not quite the 52nd state	Phil Sweeney	481
Salsa: cubans, nuyoricans and the global sound	Sue Steward	488
Trinidad – Calpyso/Soca: put water in the brandy?	Charles de Ledesma and Georgia Popplewell	507
Trinidad – Chutney: the caribbean's hot hindi sound	Tina K. Ramnarine	527
USA – Archives: filling the map with music	Tony Seeger and Richie Unterburger	531
USA – Bluegrass & Old-time: high an' lonesome	Nick Barraclough and Kurt Wolff	536
USA – Cajun & Zydeco: ultimate gumbo	Simon Broughton and Jeff Kaliss	552
USA – Gospel: devil stole the beat	Viv Broughton and James Attlee	568
USA – Klezmer: rhythm and jews	Simon Broughton	581
USA – Native America: ha-ya-ya, weya ha-ya-ya!	Andrew Means	593
USA – TexMex/Conjunto: accordion enchilada	Ramiro Burr	604
USA – World Music/Fusion: try a little fairydust	Nigel Williamson and Mark Ellingham	615
Venezuela: salsa con gasolina	Phil Sweeney and Dan Rosenberg	624