

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	ix
Introduction: finding a path	x
1 Social complexity and vulnerability	1
Introduction	1
Setting the problem	1
The new social quest	8
The exclusionary social world	13
Social complexity	18
Superdiversity, class and poverty	24
Changing perspective on answering social problems	27
Final remark	30
2 Social efficacy	33
Introduction	33
Polanyi: tacit knowledge	33
Bourdieu: habitus	39
Schön: artistry	43
Sen: capabilities	50
Concluding reflections	55
Final remark	59
3 Normative professionalisation	61
Introduction	61
Professionalisation	62

Normative professionalisation: history and essentials	64
Developing normative professionalisation	67
Fostering professionalisation	71
Final remark	73

4 Transformation and deinstitutionalisation 75

Introduction	75
Transforming the welfare state	75
Active citizenship	81
Deinstitutionalisation	84
Final remark	93

5 Social work 96

Introduction	96
Exploring and positioning social work	96
The social model	101
The social work body of knowledge	105
Contextual social work	120
Final remark	123

6 Social work as a practice based science and research 127

Introduction	127
Social work as a science and a discipline	127
Social work research	132
Research methodology and methods	137
Characterising the epistemological position of social work research	139
Evidence based practice or evidence biased practice?	140
Final remark	148

7 The case of Marc: applying theory to practice 153

Introduction	153
Multiple connections	153
Ingredients for coping with social complexity	158
Final remark	162

Index 163