

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	ix
Foreword	x
Series Editors' Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xvi
Notes on Contributors	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xxi

1 Introduction: Knowledge and the Future of the Curriculum	1
Elizabeth Rata and Brian Barrett

Part I Powerful Knowledge

2 Social Realism and the Problem of the Problem of Knowledge in the Sociology of Education	23
Rob Moore
3 On the Powers of Powerful Knowledge	41
Michael Young and Johan Muller
4 Powerful Knowledge, Esoteric Knowledge, Curriculum Knowledge	65
John Beck

Part II Knowledge Politics and Policy

5 Knowledge and Democracy: The Strife of the Dialectic	79
Elizabeth Rata
6 Risky Business: The Marginalisation of Knowledge in American Education Reform Since A Nation at Risk	92
Brian Barrett
7 The Missing 'Voice' of Knowledge in Knowledge and Skills	104
Chris Corbel

Part III Powerful Knowledge in the Curriculum

- 8 Pathways to Powerful Knowledge: A Case for Music's 'Voice' 123
Graham McPhail
- 9 'Neither Existence Nor Future': The Social Realist Challenge to School Geography 136
John Morgan
- 10 Powerful Knowledge in History: Disciplinary Strength or Weakened Episteme? 153
Barbara Ormond

Part IV Pedagogical Implications of Powerful Knowledge

- 11 Sequencing Rules as a Condition of Knowledge Structure 169
Jeanne Gamble
- 12 Building Powerful Knowledge: The Significance of Semantic Waves 181
Karl Maton
- 13 Practical Knowledge of Teaching: What Counts? 198
Yael Shalem and Lynne Slonimsky

References 213

Index 231