

CONTENT

Preface	11
Strategic Management ( Petr Vrzáček )
We Have No Strategy	18
We Lack Vision	21
We Do Not Share the Same Idea for an Organisational Mission	24
We Are Not Sure About the State of Our Organisation	27
We Are Not Certain about Our Priorities	30
We Have No Plan	33
We Do Not Know How to Manage Risks	38
We Do Not Share the Same Values	41
Our Strategy Is Stored Away in a Drawer	44
We Have a Strategy, but We Do Not Achieve the Expected Results	47
Organisation ( Petr Vrzáček )
We Do Not Have a Suitable Organisational Structure	52
We Do Not Know What People in Different Positions Are Supposed to Do	55
We Perform Redundant Tasks	58
We Lack the Necessary Positions in the Organisational Structure	61
We Have Too Many Tasks but Too Few Workers	64

Some Recurring Internal Activities Take Too Much Time, and There Is Not Always Consistent Quality in the Results	67
We Disagree with Each Other on How Key Organisational Processes Should Work	70
We Have No Directives	73
We Have Directives but No One Follows Them	76
Our Managers Are Overloaded	79
Human Resources Management ( Matěj Lejsal, Petr Vrzáček )
There Is No One to Take Care Of the Workers	84
Some Workers Do Not Have the Necessary Professional and Personal Skills	87
We Have Trouble Finding and Retaining the Right People	90
Some Workers Are Not Loyal to the Organisation	93
We Are Avoiding Conflict Resolution in the Workplace	98
We Do Not Know How to Give Feedback	101
We Lack Inventiveness and Work in the Same Way All the Time	104
We Need to Better Motivate Our Employees	107
We Do Not Have Enough Volunteers Who Would Like to Work for Us	110
We Are Overloaded, Burnt Out, We Are at the End of Our Tether	113

Financial Management (Petr Hořejš)

We Don't Know What Budget to Work With	118
--	-----

We Do Not Monitor the Use of Our Budget	121
We Are Unable to Raise Sufficient Funds	124
We Are Unable to Cover Some Essential Costs	127
Sometimes We Are Unable to Pay	130
We Lack a Proper Accounting System	133
We Have Difficulties Getting the Information We Need to Make Financial Decisions	136
Is It Better to Have a Financial Jack-of-All-Trades or Several Specialists in the Organisation?	139
We Do Not Perform Any Internal Financial Controls	142
We Are Afraid of an External Inspection or Audit	145

Fundraising (Jan Kamenický)

We Are Unable to Find Suitable Fundraising Opportunities in a Timely Manner	150
We Do Not Have Individual Donors to Regularly Support Our Activities	153
We Are Not Very Successful in Applying for Subsidies	156
We Secure Subsidies Mainly for the Implementation of Short-Term, Low-Budget Projects	159
We Are Dependent On a Single Type of Income	162
We Are Not Successful in Selling Our Own Products or Services	165
We Do Not Care Very Well for Our Donors	168
Getting Unassigned Funds Costs Us a Great Deal of Organisational Resources and Energy	171
We Are Unable to Respond Properly and in Time to Incoming Opportunities	176

We Are Unable to Secure an Effective Partnership That Would Give Us Better Access to Funding	179
--	-----

Public Relations (Ivo Mludek)

We Are Not Sure Whether We Need to Pay Attention to PR – We Do Not Have the Time or Money	184
---	-----

We Are Not Considered a Transparent Organisation	187
--	-----

We Focus on PR Randomly, Unsystematically	190
---	-----

We Do Not Have a Unified Visual Style	193
---------------------------------------	-----

We Have No Spokesperson or PR Worker and Do Not Have the Funds to Afford One	196
--	-----

We Do Not Know Which Publics We Should Communicate With	199
---	-----

We Do Not Know How to Present Our Organisation to the Media	202
---	-----

We Do Not Have a PR Calendar	205
------------------------------	-----

We Have Not Developed Relationships with the Media, Our Actions Are Ignored by Them	208
---	-----

We Do Not Organize Any Public Events Attractive to Media	211
--	-----

Contributor profiles	217
-----------------------------	-----

Index	223
--------------	-----

References	229
-------------------	-----