

Contents

Foreword	ix
 Who takes “the argument from theoretical disagreement” seriously?	 1
Adam Dyrda
 Limits of Legal Argumentation	 25
Tomasz Gizbert-Studnicki
 Taking Stories Seriously: Richard Rorty and Human Rights	 39
Martin Hapla
 A Concept of a Reader in Legislation Drafting	 51
Terezie Smejkalová and Martin Škop
 Explanatory Reports as a Means to Understand the Legislator-court Dialogue	 70
Michal Malaník
 The Legal-Philosophical Terms of Havel’s Thought in Current Legal Discourse	 86
Monika Hanych
 Law in Ignorance: Milan Kundera and The Legal Rhetoric of Anamnesis	 104
Ben Semple

Art and Democracy to Come: a Legal Approach to “The Danish Girl”	123
Fernando Armando Ribeiro
Jewish Law in the Gospel of Matthew	132
Jakub Martinec
No Smoke Without Fire? Between The Firebugs (1953) and the Refugees’ Crisis (2015–17)	139
Nellie Munin
Legal Education Through Theatre: The Case Of “Hamilton”	170
Marta Dubowska	