

Contents

List of boxes	viii
Preface to the Second Edition	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	xv

Part I Conceptualising development: meanings of development

1	Questioning development	3
	Overview: from 'development' to 'anti-development'	3
	The meaning of the word 'development'	4
	Thinking about development	5
	Critiques of development:
	Eurocentrism, populist stances, anti-development and post-modernity	11
	Spatialising development: the Third World/Developing World/Global South	21
	Rich and poor worlds: relative poverty and inequalities at the global scale	32
	Concluding issues: geography, development and 'distant others'	43
	Further reading	44
	Websites	44
	Appendix 1.A Human Development Index	45
2	Understanding colonialism	49
	Introduction	49
	Phases of colonialism	58

	Legacies of colonialism	73
	Further reading	79
3	Theories and strategies of development	80
	Introduction	80
	Theories, strategies and ideologies of development	81
	Classical-traditional approaches: early views from the developed world	82
	Historical approaches: empirical perspectives on change and development	97
	Radical dependency approaches: the Third World answers back?	106
	Alternative, bottom-up and participatory approaches: perspectives on 'another' development	114
	Development theory, modernity and post-modernity: concluding remarks	120
	Further reading	125
	Websites	125
4	Globalisation, development and underdevelopment	126
	What does globalisation mean?	126
	Globalisation and development: for and against/solution or problem?	127
	Global transformations: a shrinking world or a more unequal world?	131
	Globalisation and the information society: the digital divide and an unequal world	137

Economic aspects of globalisation: industrialisation, TNCs, world cities and global shifts	144
Economic change and global divergence	158
Global convergence? Perspectives on cultural globalisation	159
Political aspects of globalisation: the anti-globalisation and anti-capitalist movements	163
Concluding comments: globalisation and unequal development	175
Further reading	177
Websites	177

Part II Development in practice: components of development

5 People in the development process	181
People-centred development	181
Population and resources: a demographic time bomb?	182
Population distribution	183
Population dynamics	185
The demographic transition	189
Population policies	191
Population structure	192
Quality of life	198
Conclusion	220
Further reading	221
Websites	221
Appendix 5.A World population data, 1999	222
6 Resources and the environment	227
Introduction	227
The importance of resources in development	228
Resource constraints and the development process	240
Environmental impacts of development	245
The search for sustainable resource management	266

Further reading	267
Websites	267

7 Institutions of development	268
Introduction	268
The rise of global governance	269
The role of the state	304
Civil society, NGOs and development	308
Further reading	314
Websites	314

Part III Spaces of development: places and development

8 Movements and flows	319
Introduction: unravelling complexities	319
Movements and flows in the 'real world'	319
People on the move	321
Communications and transport	333
North and South: an interdependent world	336
World trade: the changing scene	340
Developing countries and the debt crisis	355
Further reading	366
Websites	366
9 Urban spaces	367
Urbanisation and development: an overview	367
Urbanisation in the contemporary Third World	369
Causes of repaid urbanisation in the Third World	375
City systems and development: questions of urban primacy, regional inequalities and unequal development	379
Urban and regional planning in Third World countries	385
Rural-urban interrelations in developing countries	390
Inside Third World cities	401

Final comments: urban management for sustainable urbanisation	424	Approaches to agricultural and rural development	452
Further reading	425	Towards better understanding of rural spaces	464
Websites	426	Further reading	468
		Websites	469
10 Rural spaces	427
Rural spaces in development	427	Bibliography	470
Principal systems of production	436	Index	501