

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
-----------------------------	-----

Introduction	1
Michael Bommes and Ewa Morawska

PART I: THEORETICAL CONCEPTS AND INTERPRETATIONS IN MIGRATION RESEARCH

1	Migration and Population in German Historical Thought: Some Critical Reflections	19
	Josef Ehmer
2	Integration Nations: The Nation-State and Research on Immigrants in Western Europe	41
	Adrian Favell
3	The Anthropology of Transnational Communities and the Reframing of Immigration Research in California: The Mixtec Case	69
	Michael Kearney
4	Gender and Migration Research	95
	Leslie Page Moch

PART II: MIGRATION RESEARCH IN DIFFERENT DISCIPLINES

5	Political Science and Comparative Immigration Politics	111
	Gary P. Freeman
6	World Society and Migrations: Challenges to Theoretical Concepts of Political Sociology	129
	Jost Halfmann

PART III: ISSUES AND DILEMMAS OF INTERDISCIPLINARITY

- | | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 7 | Law and Politics and Migration Research:
On the Potential and Limits of Interdisciplinarity
Roland Bank and Dirk Lehmkuhl | 155 |
| 8 | Interdisciplinarity in Migration Research:
On the Relation between Sociology and Linguistics
Michael Bommers and Utz Maas | 179 |
| 9 | The Sociology and History of Immigration:
Reflections of a Practitioner
Ewa Morawska | 203 |

PART IV: INTERDEPENDENCE OF MIGRATION RESEARCH AND ITS SOCIOPOLITICAL CONTEXTS

- | | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 10 | National Frames in Migration Research:
The Tacit Political Agenda
Sandra Lavenex | 243 |
| 11 | Migration Research and European Integration:
The Construction and Institutionalization
of Problems of Europe
Andrew Geddes | 265 |
| Conclusion
Michael Bommers and Ewa Morawska | | 281 |
| Index | | 287 |