

Contents

Abbreviations of Magisterial Documents	xii
----------------------------------------	-----

Introduction	xiii
--------------	------

PART ONE

Love: The Origin of Action

I. Love, Desire, Action	3
1. The Drama of Desire	5
2. The Priority of Love over Desire	10
3. The Encounter That Awakens Love and Makes It Possible	15
4. Human Action and Divine Love	18
5. The "Thread" That Binds Action to Future Fulfillment	19
6. Conclusion	23
II. Acting for the Good of Communion	25
1. Acting for Communion: Communion as the Intrinsic End of the Dynamism of Action	26
2. Action Beginning from Communion: Communion as the Original Gift and the Promise of Fulfillment	33
3. Acting in Communion: Communion as the Truth and the Rule of Action	37

Contents

4. Concluding Reflections	42
III. The Practical Dimension of a Believing Reason	46
1. The Question of the Believer's Moral Autonomy and the Magisterium's Response	47
2. The Practical Dimension of Reason and the Inevitability of "Believing" in Order to Access the Truth about the Good	50
3. The Relevance of Christian Faith for Praxis	54
4. The Exercise of Practical Reason in Believing	57
 PART TWO The Christological Fullness of Action
IV. Faith and the Moral Life: The Ways for Moral Theology to Overcome Extrinsicism	67
1. The Problem of Extrinsicism and Its Roots	68
2. The Perspective of the Dynamism of Action	72
3. Faith as a New Operative Principle	75
V. Christ as the Fullness of the Human Good and Morality	81
1. The Manifestation of the Fullness of the Human Good in Christ	83
2. The Integration into Human Action of the Good Manifested in Christ	94
VI. The Church and the Dynamism of Action	102
1. The Question Concerning Morality as an Ecclesial Question: The Challenge of "Autonomous Morality"	102
2. The Basic Perspective of Veritatis Splendor	105
3. The Privileged Ecclesiological Vision of Veritatis Splendor	108
4. Status Quaestionis Concerning the Ecclesiological Models Used in Moral Theology	109

Contents

5. Perspectives of Dynamic Correspondence Between Ecclesiology and Filial Anthropology	115
6. Essential Thematic Points for the Connection Between Ecclesiology and Morality	121
VII. Christian Moral Action and the Kingdom of Heaven	124
1. The Dynamism of Action and the Breaking In of the Kingdom of God	125
2. The Crucial Polarity of Christian Action	133
3. The Church, Dwelling Place of Hope	138
4. Conclusion	144
Conclusion: Action, the Epiphany of an Ever Greater Love	146
1. A Superabundance That Gives God Glory	147
2. The Leading Role of the Spirit in Human Acting	150
3. Excellent Actions, the Expression of Charity	154
Bibliography	163
Index of Subjects and Names	179
Index of Scripture References	184