

Contents

Preface to the Paperback Edition	ix
Preface	xv

1

Europe Judicial Torture

1	Torture and the Law of Proof	3
	The Jurisprudence of Torture	4
	The Origins of Judicial Torture	5
	The Classical Critique of Judicial Torture	8
	Abolition and the Fairy Tale	10
	Note I. The Law of Torture	12
	Note II. Torturing the Convicted	16
2	The Transformation of Criminal Sanctions	27
	The Blood Sanctions	27
	Medieval Imprisonment	28
	The Galley Sentence	29
	The Workhouse	33
	Imprisonment	38
	Transportation	39
	Europe and England	43
3	The Revolution in the Law of Proof	45
	Poena extraordinaria	45
	Punishment without Full Proof	47
	Carolina to Theresiana	49
	The New Law of Proof in France	50

Why Poena Extraordinaria? 55

- 4 The Abolition of Judicial Torture 61
 The Abolition Legislation 61
 The Abolition Legend 64

2

England The Century of Torture 1540-1640

- 5 The Torture-Free Law of Proof 73
 Peine Forte et Dure 74
 The Jury Standard of Proof 77
 Public Prosecution under the Tudors 79
- 6 The Torture Warrants 1540-1640 81
 The Gerard Warrant 82
 Venue 83
 Modes of Torture 84
 Commissioners to Torture 85
 Preconditions for Torture 87
 The Purposes of Torture 88
 The Table of Warrants 91
- 7 The Theory of Torture 129
 The Prerogative? 129
 The Reception? 131
 The End of Torture 134

Abbreviations 141

Notes 145

Index 215