

Contents

Introduction

PART I Contemporary issues in social work with adults in EU countries

- 1 Contemporary modernization processes and shifts in power relationships in social work
Martin Smutek, Lucie Smutková
Department of Social Work and Social Policy, Faculty of Education, University Hradec Králové, Czech Republic.
- 2 Adult social services in the UK: recent developments
Malcolm Payne
St Christopher's Hospice, London, UK
- 3 Developing services, knowledge and skills - the 21st century challenge
Patricia Prior
Garth Care Homes, Herefordshire, UK
- 4 Social skills as a component of education and personal development for helping professionals
Alena Novotná and Anna Žilová
Institute of Social Sciences, The Pedagogical Faculty, The Catholic University in Ružomberok, Slovak Republic
- 5 Loss, death and dying: issues for social work education in the EU
Margaret Surrey
Trinity Hospice, London, Great Britain
- 6 Research reflections on meeting the needs of older people in the Slovak Republic
Anna Žilová and Alena Novotná
Institute of Social Sciences, Pedagogical Faculty, Catholic University in Ružomberok, Slovak Republic
- 7 Social policy on unemployment in Poland
Anna Weissbrot-Koziarska
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Social Work Unit, Opole University, Poland

PART 2 Dimensions of practice in social work with adults

- 8 Social work and the phenomenon of social marginalization of the 'alien': references to the experience of working with the Romany community
Piotr Sikora and Justyna Wójcik
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Social Work Unit, Opole University, Poland; Municipal Family Aid Centre in Opole, Poland
- 9 Aspects of social work with foster families
Alicja Kurcz
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Social Pedagogy Unit, Opole University, Poland
- 10 Social work with people brought up in foster care becoming self-reliant
Józefa Brągiel, Małgorzata Kozak
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Chair of Social Pedagogy, Opole University, Poland; Municipal Family Aid Centre in Opole, Poland
- 11 Homelessness and employment
Ole Meldgaard
Kofoed School, Copenhagen, Denmark
- 12 Approaches to therapeutic work with chronic drug addicts in the Blue Cross centres in Wuppertal
Stefan Ligus
The Blue Cross in Wuppertal, Germany
- 13 The therapeutic skills of a social worker
Wiesław Sikorski
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Social Pedagogy Unit, Opole University, Poland
- 14 The applications of social facilitation in social work
Martina Špániková and Emília Janigová
Institute of Social Sciences, The Pedagogical Faculty, The Catholic University in Ružomberok, Slovak Republic
- 15 Principles and practice for alternative punishment: a social work perspective
Emília Janigová and Martina Špániková
Institute of Social Sciences, The Pedagogical Faculty, The Catholic University in Ružomberok, Slovak Republic

- 16 Social work with disabled people
Beata Górnicka
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Social Pedagogy Unit, Opole University, Poland
- 17 The higher education institution as a living environment for disabled people – possibilities for social inclusion
Iwona Dąbrowska-Jabłońska
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Social Work Unit, Opole University, Poland
- 18 Work with families to prevent social problem behaviour
Miriam Niklová
Faculty of Education, Matej Bel University, Banská Bystrica, Slovak Republic
- 19 University of the Third Age as the form of social work
Zenon Jasiński
Institute of Pedagogical Sciences, Chair of History of Education, Child Development and Comparative Pedagogy, Opole University, Poland
- 20 Helping individual caregivers of people who are dying using a group-work intervention
Margaret Reith
Princess Alice Hospice, Esher, UK.