

Contents

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| Contributors | xiii |
| Acknowledgements | xxviii |
| Making sense of Central Europe: political concepts of the region | 1 |
| MARCIN MOSKALEWICZ AND WOJCIECH PRZYBYLSKI | |
| PART I | |
| Positioning Central Europe | 23 |
| 1 Positioning in global hierarchies: the case of Central Europe | 25 |
| ATTILA MELEGH | |
| 2 Centers of Europe | 32 |
| MÁTÉ ZOMBORY | |
| 3 Creating Central Europe in Polish and Czech Samizdat | 43 |
| WERONIKA PARFIANOWICZ-VERTUN | |
| 4 Transition/transformation, state capture or varieties of capitalism? | 52 |
| MARCEL TOMÁŠEK | |
| 5 Europeanization | 59 |
| MICHAŁ WENZEL | |
| PART II | |
| Orientalism | 67 |
| 6 Which way east? A conceptual misunderstanding | 69 |
| ADAM REICHARDT | |

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 7 Problem of “Western” approach to the “East”: a need for more careful listening and better understanding | 75 |
| IGOR LYUBASHENKO | |
| 8 Poland and the East | 80 |
| TOMASZ ZARYCKI | |
| 9 The East in the Czech perspective | 86 |
| RADOMÍR SZTWIERTNIA | |
| 10 On “East”, “Central” and “Eastern” Europe: Belarus and Central European politics of identity | 91 |
| ALIAKSEI KAZHARSKI | |
| PART III | |
| Geopolitics | 99 |
| 11 Regional geopolitics perspective of contemporary Poland: same or different as other V4 countries? | 101 |
| WOJCIECH KAZANECKI | |
| 12 Geopolitics in Polish national strategies | 107 |
| ŁUKASZ MEDEKSZA | |
| 13 Towards a sustainable Visegrad: some reflections on the future role of Central Europe in the EU | 115 |
| TOMÁŠ STRÁŽAY | |
| 14 Popular geopolitics: understanding the Central European space in the Czech Republic | 119 |
| MATÚŠ HALÁS | |
| 15 Regional geopolitics: the case of Hungary | 127 |
| ATTILA JAKAB | |
| PART IV | |
| Nationalism | 135 |
| 16 Nation: Central European context | 137 |
| RADOSŁAW ZENDEROWSKI | |

| | | |
|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 17 | The normative isomorphism of language, nation and state | 144 |
| | TOMASZ KAMUSELLA | |
| 18 | Nation and region in Central Europe | 151 |
| | BÁLINT VARGA | |
| 19 | My hero, your enemy: competing national memory cultures and symbolic politics in Central Europe | 156 |
| | BÁLINT VARGA | |
| 20 | The concept of “nation” in Polish educational books | 163 |
| | DANIEL CIUNAJCIS | |
| 21 | Europe-but-not-Europe? National identity in contemporary Slovak politics | 172 |
| | KRISTINA MIKULOVA | |
| 22 | Narratives of trauma and suffering in Slovak–Hungarian relations | 183 |
| | DAGMAR KUSÁ | |
| 23 | Nationalism in historical constructs of the nation in Hungary | 198 |
| | GÁBOR EGRY | |
| 24 | Nationalism as civil religion: the case of Hungary | 205 |
| | ATTILA B. PATÓ | |
| 25 | Czech Republic: dream to be nationalistic | 216 |
| | MARTIN EHL | |
| 26 | Historical consciousness: Czech and Slovak examples | 222 |
| | JIRI SUBRT | |
| PART V | | |
| | Federalism | 229 |
| 27 | No federation without separation: István Bibó about the prerequisites of regional and European integration | 231 |
| | ZOLTÁN BRETTER | |

| | | |
|-----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 28 | The ghost of Judeopolonia or the never-existing Eastern European confederation | 239 |
| | ZOLTÁN HALASI | |
| 29 | Feliks Koneczny's theory of civilizations | 248 |
| | TOMASZ RABURSKI | |
| PART VI | | |
| | Liberalism | 255 |
| 30 | Liberalism in the Czech lands: between nationalism and party marginality | 257 |
| | VÍT HLOUŠEK | |
| 31 | A fall of liberalism foretold? Liberal politics in Hungary at the turn of two centuries | 266 |
| | SZABOLCS POGONYI | |
| 32 | Liberalism in Poland: past experiences – present challenges | 274 |
| | MICHAŁ WARCHAŁA | |
| 33 | Liberalism and its tradition in Slovakia | 283 |
| | SAMUEL ABRAHÁM | |
| PART VII | | |
| | Civil society | 289 |
| 34 | The rise and fall of civil society in East-Central Europe | 291 |
| | AGNES GAGYI AND MARIYA IVANCHEVA | |
| 35 | Individualized vs. organized civic engagement in CEE countries | 300 |
| | JIŘÍ NAVRÁTIL | |
| 36 | Contention and the civil society | 311 |
| | GRZEGORZ PIOTROWSKI | |
| 37 | Civil society as a jargon: Central European experience of civic activity after 1989 | 318 |
| | JAN GRZYMSKI | |

PART VIIIParticipatory democracy 327*38 Participatory democracy in Hungary: out of practice due to lack of interest 329

LÁSZLÓ KOMÁROMI

39 Understanding and political use of participation in Polish urban politics 336

MARTA SIENKIEWICZ

40 The opportunities and threats for multilevel governance in Central Europe 344

LUKASZ MEDEKSZA

41 Too many actors reshape the plot: why the rise of participatory democracy undermines the old ideological framework 353

OKSANA FOROSTYNA

42 Environmentalism and civil activism in Hungary 359

DANIEL MIKECZ

PART IXInformation society 367*43 Startup ecosystem in the Visegrad Group and its main challenges 369

SARA KOSLINSKA

44 Impact of ITC on the information society in the Visegrad Group states 378

JAKUB GRADZIUK

PART XLustration 383*45 Lustration: Ukrainian case 385

BESSONOVA MARYNA

46 Lustration in Poland 395

SPASIMIR DOMARADKI

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 47 Lustration in Slovakia | 404 |
| PAVLÍNA JANEBOVÁ | |
| 48 Lustration in Czech Politics | 411 |
| MICHAL VIT | |
| PART XI | |
| Power | 417 |
| 49 The Kundera paradox: dying for Ukraine and Europe? | |
| What the Ukraine crisis can tell us about European power | 419 |
| ALIAKSEI KAZHARSKI | |
| 50 Polish power: potentia and its limits | 427 |
| RODERICK PARKES | |
| 51 Power and the liberal conscience: context of Central Eastern Europe | 433 |
| AGNIESZKA ROSNER | |
| 52 The power of the Visegrad cooperation | 441 |
| ZSUZSANNA VÉGH | |
| PART XII | |
| Solidarity | 451 |
| 53 European solidarity from the Central European perspective | 453 |
| MAGDALENA GÓRA | |
| 54 “Round table” talks as a conflict resolution tool: the Central and Eastern European experience | 461 |
| DARIUSZ DOBRZAŃSKI | |
| 55 Between anti-politics and post-politics: a history of the idea of solidarity | 468 |
| JACEK KOŁTAN | |
| 56 Solidarity by decree: a view from Hungary | 475 |
| SZABOLCS POGONYI | |

PART XIII

Politics of health

479

57 Sterilization in the name of public health

481

JOSEF KUŘE

58 Eugenics in the Polish context: from racial hygiene to new genetics

490

AGNIESZKA ŻOK AND EWA BAUM

59 From eugenics and “race protection” to preventive medicine and family planning in Hungary

498

ENIKŐ DEMÉNY

60 The matrix of the physician–patient relationship within the context of medical ethics in Slovakia

508

ANDREA KLIMKOVÁ

PART XIV

Cities

517

61 Urban solemnity and warped public space in Poland

519

KACPER POBŁOCKI

62 The city as an actor, arena and topic of political conflicts in contemporary Poland

525

ŁUKASZ MEDEKSZA

63 Five tales of a city: dysfunction and potential in a Central European capital

534

LEVENTE POLYÁK

64 Civic initiatives and city culture, a case study: Szeged

539

ATTILA B. PATÓ

PART XV

Languages of art

549

65 Languages of art in Central Europe: participation, recognition, identity

551

MAGDALENA MOSKALEWICZ

| | | |
|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 66 | An isolated archipelago or simply one of many islands? | 559 |
| | JAN ZÁLEŠÁK | |
| 67 | Visualizing, mocking and enacting: vocabularies of Eastern European artistic activism | 567 |
| | MARGARET TALI | |
| 68 | Roma contemporary art – the language of European de-coloniality | 577 |
| | TÍMEA JUNGHAUS | |
| | Index | 585 |